

A Message from the Director

It is amazing that two-thirds of the world don't know the message of the Good News of salvation through Jesus. The news that Jesus, the Son of God, came to save the world. He died. He rose. He invites all to share in His life.

As we celebrate World Mission Sunday this year, we acknowledge the following overseas missionaries, religious and diocesan priests, religious sisters, brothers, seminarians and lay people, who consider Rochester their home diocese or diocese of origin. The data was furnished by the United States Catholic Mission Association in Washington, D.C. Our prayers are with these dedicated people who are telling the world the Good News.

This World Mission Sunday when you are asked to contribute to the Church's worldwide missionary effort, think about the Good News that you know -- the news that two-thirds of the world does not know -- the news that our friends are telling those they serve. Help facilitate the sharing. Help get Jesus' word out. Give generously this World Mission Sunday! Father Robert C. Bradler
