Fellowship group plans party

St. Thomas More, Brighton — The Adult Fellowship Group is sponsoring a card party on Monday, Nov. 7, from 1-3:30 p.m. in the school gym, 2617 East Ave., Rochester. Refreshments will be served. Tickets cost $2 per person. Call Sister Karen at (716)381-4200 for more information.

Workshop to offer alternatives to Christmas commercialization

St. Pius, Chili — Panicky parents besieged by bulky Christmas catalogs can examine their feelings at a workshop on Saturday, Nov. 5, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the parish meeting room. Entitled "Unplug the Christmas Machine," the workshop will explore the positive and negative connotations of Christmas with the purpose of giving participants ideas on how to plan a holiday that reflects their personal values. The cost is $5 per person and $7 per couple. For more information or to register call Megan Neuman at (716)889-4184, Mary Wilkins at (716)889-2753, or the adult education office at (716)247-5269 no later than November. 2.

Healing priest to speak

St. Anne's, Palmyra — Father Matthew Swizdor, a Franciscan noted for his gift of healing, will celebrate a series of Masses at 7:30 each evening from Sunday to Thursday, Oct. 23-27. Father Swizdor has written three books on his healing ministry, emphasizing his belief that people are healed when they open their hearts to God. Everyone is invited to the services, whether or not they are sick.

Week-long mission planned

Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Rochester — The parish is sponsoring a mission entitled "Come to the water," October 23-30. Eight consecutive sessions will feature study, prayer, special liturgies and fellowship. Check-in is at 6:30 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 23. Each subsequent session begins at 6:45 p.m. The mission will end with a shared supper at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 30., followed by Mass at 5 p.m. In addition to various lay speakers, the following priests and religious from Rochester will speak: Father Bob Werth, pastor of St. Bridget's; Father Neil Miller, pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help; and Deacon Klaus Schulz; Father Robert Gaudio, pastor of St. Monica's;

Seven Nazareth Academy students helped host the 48th annual meeting of the American Association for State and Local History, September 13 to 18. Becky Bachman, Cheryl Feeley, Renee Gambitta, Kris Holbig, Chris Kelly, Maureen Lynch, and Bamini Pathmanathan assisted during the President's Reception at Strong Museum, providing directions, and welcoming delegates from historical societies, universities, colleges and museums from across the nation.

Therese M. Riordan, assistant professor of management at St. John Fisher College, has been elected to the Rochester American Marketing Association board of directors for 1988-89. In June, Riordan participated in a seminar entitled, "Microcomputer Application in the Marketing Curriculum," at Brigham Young University.

In Wilkes-Barre, Pa., on July 15-16, the surviving members of the Breslin family were reunited for the first time in 57 years. Separated when their mother passed away in 1931, the siblings were adopted, lived in orphanages or with relatives or family friends, and remained out of touch until last year. Mary Breslin and the then upcoming reunion were featured in a Courier Journal article in June.

Parish Notes

Father Anthony P. Mugavero, associate pastor of St. Theodore's; and Sister Grace Miller, director of the House of Mercy. Babysitting and transportation will be available. To pre-register, or for more information, call the rectory at (716)467-2725.

Parish prepares for pasta fest

St. Andrew's, Rochester — The annual spaghetti dinner will take place Thursday, Nov. 3, from 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. and 4:30-7:30 p.m. in the parish hall. Tickets are available at the rectory, through all the parish societies, and at the door. The cost is $4 for adults, $2 for students and $3 for senior citizens. Each ticket is good for one of the two serving times. Call Pat Pudetti at (716)342-8355 for more information.

Joint parish effort commences to reach out to homebound

St. Francis DeSales and St. Stephen's, Geneva — The social ministry committees of both parishes have initiated the Dove program to expand parish services to homebound senior citizens. So far, more than 25 volunteers have committed to provide such services as weekly phone calls, rides to doctor appointments, shopping and banking errands, and personal support to isolated parishioners. The program was started after pastoral assistants and concerned laity reported a great need among the area's elderly for such services. For more information, call Nathalie Coleman at (315)789-2038.

Class of 1938 to celebrate 50th anniversary of graduation

St. Joseph's, Penfield — The parish school class of 1938 will have a reunion on October 29 at 14 Fairfield Drive in Fairport. Cocktails will be served at 6 p.m., followed by a dinner buffet at 7 p.m. Call Gene or Phyllis Mueller at (716)377-9598 with regrets only.

Neighbors

Catholic scouts and leaders from throughout the Diocese of Rochester prepare to raise the gateway to a new outdoor chapel at Kamp Koinonia. Building the chapel with logs and lashings was part of the Diocesan Scout Retreat, which took place September 23-25. The theme of the retreat, attended by more than 100 scouts, was "Jesus — the Ship of Life."

Sister Jeanne Marie Keese, superior general of the Rochester Sisters of Mercy, Sister Elizabeth Anne LeValley, superior general of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester and Sister Agnes Catherine Battersby, an SSJ administrator, attended the Leadership Conference of Women Religious meeting, which took place in late August in St. Paul, Minn. Among the activities at the conference, participants analyzed the first draft of Partners in the Mystery of Redemption: A Pastoral Response to Women's Concerns for Church and Society and discussed the issue of racism.
