Santa Claus to make rare area appearance

St. Patrick's, Seneca Falls — The captain of the world toy industry, Santa Claus, plans to stop at the parish bazaar the weekend of November 11-12. An Italian dinner will start the festivities on Friday, Nov. 11, at 5 p.m. Cost is $3.95 per adult and $2.50 per child under 12. Following the dinner, free entertainment and other activities will begin at 7:30 p.m.

A pancake breakfast will be served from 8:30-10:30 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 12. Booths will be open throughout the day, featuring baked goods, arts and crafts. A lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m. consisting of chicken soup, hot dogs, sandwiches and dessert. At an as-yet undisclosed time, Santa Claus will arrive with some surprise guests.

For more information, call the rectory at (315)568-5203.

Chili parish series to explore conflict resolution in marriage

St. Christopher's, North Chili — Resolving marital disputes can be difficult, but conflict resolution skills can give a couple a better chance of saving an unstable relationship. The parish is sponsoring a two-part series on conflict resolution on Wednesday, Nov. 9, from 7:15-9:45 p.m., and Saturday, Nov. 12, from 9-12 a.m.

Dr. John W. Heister, director of the Mediation Center of Rochester, and Dr. Dennis E. Boike, a specialist in marriage counseling, divorce adjustment, and family and adolescent therapy, will conduct both workshops. Participants will learn how lack of resolution skills creates tension and divorce in marriages, how to manage anger, communicate and make decisions involving both parties in a relationship.

The cost is $25 per person. For more information, call Heister, (716)272-1990, or Boike, (716)385-1950.

Corning parish schedules bazaar

St. Patrick's, Corning — The parish bazaar will take place on Friday, Nov. 11, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Baked goods, handicrafts, plants and religious articles donated by parishioners will be on sale. Recreational activities will also be featured throughout the day. For more information, call the rectory at (607)962-6814 or 962-6815.

On September 11, 1988, in the Chapel of the Divine Word Seminary in East Troy, Wisconsin, Brother Jude (Joseph) Heeks, SVD, celebrated his golden jubilee. Born August 31, 1907, in Rochester, Brother Jude is a graduate of St. Michael's School. He entered the Society of the Divine Word in 1936 in Techny, Illinois, taking his first vows in 1938 and his final vows in 1944. In 1951, he was transferred to East Troy to serve as organist for the new chapel. During the past 37 years, he has also served as a bookkeeper, gardener and barber.

The anniversary was marked by a Mass at which Brother Heeks renewed his vows, and a reception and dinner that followed. Attending were his sister, Emma Heeks Gossen, and two nieces, Ann Deslandes and her husband, Raymond, and Rosemary Hahn, all of whom live in the Rochester area.

Dale Glowgowski, a senior at Our Lady of Mercy High School, was one of 700 recipients nationwide of the National Council of Teachers of English Achievement Award. Glowgowski, who was also a National Merit Scholarship semifinalist and first runner-up in the Miss Polonia Contest, won with a creative essay titled "Sun and Shadow." She currently plans to attend Clarkson University to study electrical engineering.

St. Joseph's Villa has announced that Cheryl Turco is the agency's new director of health services. She comes to the Villa after serving as health care coordinator for Hillside Children's Center and after working as a Monroe County community health nurse. Turco holds

Video series scheduled

St. Patrick's, Macedon — Dr. Leo Buscaglia is featured in a video series on love and family relationships that will run on three consecutive Mondays; November 7, 14 and 21. Admission is free. For more information, call the rectory at (315)986-5671.

Next-to-new sale continues

St. Margaret Mary, Rochester — The Home School Committee is sponsoring a "Next-to-New" sale in the school basement on Thursday, Nov. 3, 9 a.m.-8 p.m., and Friday, Nov. 4, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. More than 6,000 articles of clothing for children and adults are available, according to Eileen D'Arienzo, co-chairwoman of the event. Most of the clothes are for fall and winter. Baby furniture, toys and household items are also available.

"It is the support of the parish families, who donated these items, that will make this event a success," said Suzanne O'Neill, co-chairwoman. For more information, call Jim Miner at (716)338-1048.

Marian series continues

Blessed Sacrament, Rochester — The parish continues its series of videotaped talks on the Blessed Virgin Mary as viewed from a non-Catholic perspective.

The presentations are being given in two different series — one for the general public and one for parish ministers, clergy and staff. The talks for the general public run from 7:30-9 p.m. on Sundays, November 6, 13 and 20. The talks for ministers and staff members run from 12-1:30 p.m. on November 10, 17, and 22.

Topics and speakers, in the sequence they will be offered, are: "Mary, Theotokas and the Orthodox Tradition," featuring Bishop Kalistos Ware, a lecturer at Oxford University; "The Blessed Virgin in Jungian Depth Psychology," featuring Dr. Donald Dawe from Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Va.; and "Mary — Undoing the Stereotype," featuring Dr. Kathleen Storrie, professor of sociology of religion at the University of Saskatchewan.

The Sisters of Mercy of Rochester have appointed Patricia Albrecht as the new director of their Associate Program. Albrecht, who succeeds Sister Janet Korn, is the first lay person to hold this position for the congregation.

Albrecht has been involved in lay ministry for a number of years, initiating the Women's Day of Prayer at Notre Dame Retreat House, Canandaigua. She has been on the parish council of St. John's Parish, Clyde, for four years, last year serving as council chair and trustee. She has also coordinated parish weeks of prayer, formed marriage preparation teams, and facilitated discussion on Bishop Matthew Clark's paper on women, Fire in the Thornbush, and the U.S. Bishops' pastoral letter, The Challenge of Peace.

The Associate Program of the Sisters of Mercy of Rochester is designed for lay men and women who aim to carry the congregation's mission and spirit into their own walks of life. The program has 24 associates in the United States and 16 in South America, where the Sisters of Mercy of Rochester serve in Santiago, Chile.

Nazareth Academy has announced a number of faculty and staff appointments. Father Robert Werth, pastor of St. Bridget's Parish, is the school's new chaplain. Sister Julia Clare Richards, SSJ, has joined the media center. Laura LeSchander will work in the guidance office. New teachers include: Marie Cockey, music; David Housecamp, mathematics; Matthew Mareggi, religious studies; Carol Potocki, science; Julianna Rittmeyer, art; and Ami Reichert, dance.
