IS YOUR SERVICEMAN BLOWING A LOT OF HOT AIR INSTEAD OF YOUR FURNACE?

"We've had our furnace cleaned before by other heating contractors. Some of them left quite a mess when they were through. This year we decided to give Brandt Heating a try. Needless to say, we were very satisfied. Their serviceman was very polite and most importantly, he didn't leave a mess for us to clean up when he was finished."

'Money talks' at rectory

St. Mary's, Rochester — The parish is sponsoring two discussions on the role of money as part of its Downtown Community Forum series. Both talks are on Tuesdays from 12:10-12:50 p.m. in the rectory's commons room.

"The Place of Money in History" will be the subject of a talk on November 15 by Colin Linsley, assistant professor of economics at St. John Fisher College. Tom Greco Jr., an alternative economist and writer, will speak on "Community Economic Alternatives" on November 22. Greco will discuss models of financial investment that are socially responsible, ecologically sound, and locally based.

For information, call Linda Quinlan at 716/232-7140.

Fast features soup supper

Our Lady of Good Counsel, Rochester — The parish will observe the Fast for a World Harvest with its annual soup supper at 6 p.m. following 5:30 Mass on Thursday, Nov. 17. Offerings will be accepted for the Catholic Charities Action Center for the Disabled. Ken Maher, director of Genesee Valley Office of Social Ministry, will speak about social ministries, focusing on the Action Center for the Disabled. For information, call Patricia Affonso at 716/328-8801.

Square dance set to go

Assumption of Our Lady, Fairport — The St. Mary's Guild is sponsoring a square dance on Friday, Nov. 18, from 8 p.m. to "when the cows come home." Tickets are $5 per person, and include the cost of refreshments. For more information, call Cathy Warner at (716) 388-1466, or Joanne Fusco at (716) 223-5059.

Annual bazaar scheduled for St. Pat's in Corning

St. Patrick's, Corning — The parish bazaar, featuring lots of baked goods, religious articles and more, has been scheduled for 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 11, at St. Patrick's Parish Center, Denison Parkway, Corning.

Admission to the bazaar — held every other year — is free. All are welcome. Call 607/962-6814 for information.

Parish Notes

Parish to sell fruitcakes

St. Anthony of Padua, Rochester — The parish is selling Claxton fruitcakes from Georgia at $2.50 per pound. The cakes are available at the rectory office on weekday mornings, and before and after weekend Masses. Proceeds will go to support the parish. For information, call the parish at 716/458-1180.

Retreats for adults, youth scheduled for Wayland parish

St. Joseph's, Wayland — A directed retreat for adults is scheduled for the parish from Sunday, Dec. 4, to Saturday, Dec. 10. The retreat will be conducted by a team of sisters from the St. Joseph's Motherhouse Prayer Center.

Each participant will meet privately each day with a spiritual director. The requested donation for the week-long retreat is $35.

Applications must be received by Friday, Nov. 11.

A youth retreat for high school students — conducted by a team of four adults and six high school youth from a Catholic renewal group in New Jersey called Faith, Intercession, Repentance, Evangelization (F.I.R.E.) — is scheduled for the weekend of November 19 and 20.

The retreat will run from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 19, and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 20. A youth Mass is scheduled for Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

A $10 fee will include a spaghetti dinner on Saturday, lunch on Sunday, and refreshments.

The Penny Social at St. Joseph's School will take place on Wednesday, Nov. 16, at 6 p.m. Donations of new and handcrafted items are needed — especially Christmas items. Donated items can be left at the rectory on weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Wayland Area Council of Churches will sponsor a community celebration of Thanksgiving at 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 20, at Wayland Central School.

Call 716/728-2228 for information.

Neighbors

Students at Our Lady of Lourdes School and Seton Junior High School raised more than $8,000 through a six-mile marathon held Wednesday, Oct. 5. The money will be used to purchase video supplies, sports equipment and enrichment materials.

Fifteen Nazareth Academy students delivered more than 4,000 carnations to patients at Monroe Community Hospital on Wednesday, Oct. 12, as part of the City of Rochester's recognition of Sweetest Day (officially scheduled for October 15).

Participating were: Amy Cockerell, Debbie DiRose, Sue Iekel, Vinh Lee, Alesia Miller, Amy Attridge, Cristen Briggs, Michelle Courtright, Rebecca Ehrmentraut, Vonetta Johnson, Carolyn Rodwell, Kristina Caruso, Kim Farrell, Heidi Phelps, and Jennifer Usher.

On October 13, local members of Church Office Professional Employees (C.O.P.E.) met at Notre Dame Retreat House for a workshop on communicating/listening conducted by Rosalyn Karaban, a professor at St. Bernard's Institute.

In addition, the group also heard a presentation from Mary Kessler, director of personnel services of the Diocese of Rochester, and reports from C.O.P.E. members who are committee members of the Personnel Commission: Margie Enright, salary and benefits, and Carolyn Gomel, policies. Kessler also announced that C.O.P.E. member Mary R. Cantatore would be appointed to the Development of Ministers/Employees Committee.

Members of the organization also elected their officers for 1988-89: Mary Cantatore, president; Joan McGlynn, vice president; and Carole Ann Schwingel, secretary-treasurer.

Students at St. Joseph School, Penfield, completed their annual magazine drive, exceeding the goal of $60,000. Pictured with Sister Nancy Kelly, RSM, principal, are: top-seller Lorraine Krotec (front), a second-grader who sold more than $1,200 worth of subscriptions; and second- and third-place winners Christian Harrison and Heather Bale.

In the ninth annual Marathon for Catholic Schools on September 30, students of Mother of Sorrows School raised more than $8,800 through pledges and direct donations. Ten percent of the proceeds will be tithed to programs for the homeless; the rest will be used for operating expenses by the school. The three top sellers were Meredith Petersheim, Chris Hynes and Kathy Schwan.

Kevin and Scott Rhatigan of Bishop Kearney High School were named semifinalists in the 1989 competition for Merit Scholarships for the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. The fraternal twins finished in the top 15,000 among more than 1.2 million students who took the PSAT/NM...

Both students participate in the school's Varsity Club, National Honor Society and AV Club, as well as cross country and track teams, and intramural soccer. Scott plans to study computer engineering at Clarkson University or Worcester Polytechnical Institute while Kevin intends to study biomedical engineering at the University of Rochester.
