PARISH NOTES

Series to examine courts

ROCHESTER — St. Mary's Church, at 15 St. Mary's Place, is sponsoring a series entitled "How is justice served?" as part of its Downtown Community Forum program. Each talk will be presented from 12:10-12:50 p.m. on three consecutive Mondays in the rectory commons room. Featured speakers are:

March 6 — John J. Connell, Monroe County court judge; March 13 — Howard R. Relin, Monroe County district attorney.

The series is free and open to the public. For information, call 716/232-7140.

Choir to feature violinist

PITTSFORD — St. Louis Church, at 60 Main St., will present a choral performance of Pergolesi's "Stabat Mater" on Sunday, March 5, at 3 p.m. Violinist Tara Noval, a graduate of the parish school, will be featured in several classical pieces.

Noval has appeared with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra and the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra. She has won several competitions, including first place in the National Federation of Music Clubs 1987 Auditions.

The text of "Stabat Mater" dates to a 13th century poem by Pergolesi which depicts the sorrow of the Blessed Virgin Mary as she watches Jesus dying on the cross. The music is for women's voices, and accompaniment on the organ will be provided by Alison Luedecke. Lucy Fee, Mary Anne Guariglia, Molly Nikodem, Rose Mathews, Ginni Pierce and Carmen Quinones will be soloists.

The concert is free and open to the public.

Medjugorje talk planned

WEST IRONDEQUOIT — Father Albert Shamon will lecture on the reported apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary at Medjugorje, Yugoslavia, on Tuesday, March 7, at 7 p.m. in St. Thomas the Apostle Church, 4536 St. Paul Blvd. For information, call Marilyn at 716/544-6778.

Antique sale scheduled

ROCHESTER — Holy Cross Church, at 4492 Lake Ave., is sponsoring its 19th annual antique show on Saturday, March 4, from 11 a.m.-6 p.m., and on Sunday, March 5, from 11 a.m.-5 p.m., in the school auditorium. Admission is $1.50, and 35 dealers will participate. Hot lunches and dinners will be available.

Father Cuddy to conduct renewal program in March

ELMIRA HEIGHTS — Father Paul J. Cuddy, columnist for the Catholic Courier, will lead a four-day renewal entitled "The Tangibles and the Intangibles in the Church" at St. Charles Borromeo Church, 130 Oakwood Ave., Elmira Heights, from Sunday, March 5, to Wednesday, March 8.

The program will begin at the Sunday Masses on March 5 and continue the following three days with renewal instructions and Mass at 5:15 p.m. each day. Call 607/734-7619 for more information.

Capuchin to lead renewal

PENFIELD — Father Simeon Gallagher, OFM Cap., will be the guest speaker for the week of renewal to be held at St. Joseph's Parish March 5-9, beginning at 7:30 each evening. The theme for the week is "Our journey in faith."

Father Gallagher has conducted parish renewal programs throughout the United States. He also recently conducted retreats for priests in both Europe and El Salvador.

For information about the renewal, call the rectory at 716/586-0674.

Ithaca parish needs help delivering meals in March

ITHACA — Immaculate Conception Parish in Ithaca is responsible for providing "Meals on Wheels" during March. The program is designed for people living at home who are not well enough to prepare nutritious meals for themselves.

Two drivers and delivery people are needed from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Call 607/273-2725 for more information.

Parish continues series

ROCHESTER — St. Anne's Church, at 1600 Mt. Hope Ave., is continuing the following series:

"Liturgy and architecture: These stones will shout" — an adult education class on the history of liturgy and the evolution of worship space. Presented by Lee Chase, parish coordinator of religious education, the classes will be on Tuesdays at 7 p.m., March 7, 14, 21 and 28.

"Meditations on creation spirituality" — Monsignor William Roche, pastor, is leading a study on the paths of creation spirituality. Classes are on Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m., March 8 and 15.

Admission to both series is free. Classes are in the religious education center. For more information, call 716/461-2359.
