PARISH NOTES

Fashion show date slated

SENECA FALLS — The fourth annual Catholic Daughters Fashion Show will be held Sunday, April 16, at 2 p.m. at the Holiday Inn, off Routes 5 and 20.

The afternoon will include the show and a roast beef dinner. Tickets cost $10 for adults and $5 for children, and may be purchased at St. Patrick's rectory, 97 W. Bayard St.; or from Laura Tedesche, 315/568-8100; or Mary Robinette, 568-8037.

Proceeds from the event will go to St. Patrick's School.

Crop Walk needs walkers

WOLCOTT — The annual Crop Walk will be held Saturday, April 29, at 9 a.m., beginning at Wolcott Village Park and ending at St. Mary Magdalene Church, where refreshments will be provided by the Trinity Activities Society.

Walkers will be asked to get sponsors and to walk between one and 10 kilometers. Seventy-five percent of the money raised from the walk will be used to feed the hungry throughout the world, while 25 percent will be used in Wolcott, Red Creek and North Rose.

For information about becoming a walker, call Aggie Burlee (St. Margaret Mary) at 315/587-4542, or Kathy De Mass (St. Thomas, Red Creek) at 754-6203.

Parish mission scheduled

ROCHESTER — St. Andrew's Church, at 923 Portland Ave., is sponsoring a mission from Sunday, April 16, to Thursday, April 20. The mission consists of five evening sessions, 7-9 p.m., and four morning sessions, Monday-Thursday, 8:30-10:30 a.m. Each session consists of prayer and reflection.

For information, call Mary Merritt at 716/342-7991.

Parish school students active in community

ROCHESTER — Students at Mother of Sorrows School, 1777 Latta Road, are raising funds for charity and working to make supermarket produce safe to eat.

Until May 24, fifth-graders will be collecting UPC symbols from Scott products. For every UPC symbol collected, Scott will donate 10 cents to the Ronald McDonald House, which houses out-of-town families of children who are patients at local hospitals. These families can save money by staying at Ronald McDonald House, which charges only minimal fees.

Students at Mother of Sorrows are also concerned about the spraying of pesticides on fruits and vegetables. Children in grades one through eight recently urged that pesticide spraying be stopped in letters they wrote to U.S. Rep. Louise Slaughter, U.S. Senators Daniel Patrick Moynihan and Alphonse D'Amato, state Sen. Ralph Quattrocchio, and assemblyman Roger Robach.

Henrietta parish to host program on annulments

HENRIETTA — Good Shepherd Parish, 3318 E. Henrietta Road, will host the diocesan Annulment Experience Weekend from 7 p.m. on Friday, April 21, to 10 p.m. on Saturday, April 22, in the parish school.

Father William Laird, of the Diocesan Tribunal, will speak on the annulment process on Friday night. Angela Gallo, director of diocesan Ministry to the Separated and Divorced, will be present for the entire weekend to answer questions and provide support. Volunteers who have been through the annulment process will also be present.

For more information on cost and registration, call Angela Gallo at 716/454-7650.

NEIGHBORS

At the 42nd annual Catholic scouter recognition dinner held March 5 at Logan's Party House, six scouters from the Diocese of Rochester were given the St. George Emblem, scouting's highest honor, and one priest was awarded the Bronze Pelican, an award given to priests and religious for significant contributions to scouting.

Auxiliary Bishop Dennis W. Hickey presented the St. George Emblem to Robert Adams, Arthur Post, Susan Bouchard, William Zema, Frank Hubbell and Dominic Schifano. Bishop Hickey gave the Bronze Pelican to Father Francis Davis, pastor of St. Patrick's Parish, Corning.

At the dinner, Edward Sloan, chairman of the Diocesan Catholic Boy Scouts Committee, presented Certificates of Merit to Joseph Carbone, Robert Fisher, Ted Goljuch, Debra Salmon, George and Rosemary Varga, R. Peter Baker, Father Paul Appel, Betty Ann Ferratella, Betty Hess, Mary Woeppel, Father John Gagnier, and Yolanda Scholfield.

Sister Hilary Hanly, SSJ, has been awarded the Outstanding Volunteer Award from the Muscular Dystrophy Association. A nurse at St. Joseph's Villa from 1960-65, Sister Hanly is currently at St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira, where she has been the intake and referral coordinator for Pediatric Rehabilitation at the Twin Tiers Rehabilitation Center since 1973. She has also recently received a certificate in recognition of service from the University of New York Education Department Southern Tier Office of Vocational Rehabilitation.

Mary Leister-Schied, a biology and chemistry teacher at Nazareth Academy, has been selected the school's winner of the 1989 University of Rochester Teaching Excellence Award. On April 11, Leister-Schied and other teachers selected by their colleagues for excellence in teaching were honored at a reception, dinner and awards ceremony held at the University of Rochester.

On Sunday, March 5, Junior Achievement of Rochester presented Donna Albano Schwartz with the 1989 Outstanding Special Project Business Teacher Award. Schwartz teaches science and math at St. Stanislaus School, Rochester, which hosted the program. Junior Achievement introduces students to a better understanding and deeper appreciation for the free enterprise system. The program includes business projects and field trips.

In early March, students from DeSales High School and sixth-, seventh- and eighth-grade students from St. Francis/Stephen's School were treated to a talk by Harry Flaherty, a former member of the Dallas Cowboys football team. Flaherty spoke about how his religious upbringing helped him cope with pressures and problems. His visit was made possible by Sports World Ministries Inc., which sponsors the appearance of professional athletes at secondary schools to address students on the prevention of drug and alcohol abuse.
