PARISH NOTES

Single adults schedule sharing supper, dance

PITTSFORD — The single adult ministry of St. Louis Parish, 60 Main St., will host a sharing supper and dance on Sunday, May 21, at 6:30 p.m. in the parish hall. Participants are asked to bring a dish to pass and table service. All single adults — divorced, widowed or never-married — are invited to attend. For information, contact Rose Mathews at 716/248-9141, or Georgia Crissy at 716/924-7377.

The single adult ministry hosts several events throughout the year. For information on various activities for different single adults, contact the following: bereaved/widowed: Jona Mooney at 716/381-8407, or Frank Griffin at 716/586-9171; divorced/separated: Georgia Crissy, or Jim Martin at 716/223-4942; never married: Laurie Frykholm at 716/586-1646, or Frank Desino at 716/243-1188; altar-care ministry: Rose Mathews, or Marie Vasile at 716/586-8053.

Youth group in Ithaca plans benefit car wash

ITHACA — The high school youth group at St. Catherine of Siena Parish will have a car wash to benefit the weekend meal service at Southside Community Center on Saturday, May 13, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Trihammer Mobil Station across from the Pyramid Mall in Ithaca.

The meal program serves disadvantaged people of Ithaca. Many parish teens help serve meals at the soup kitchen on a regular basis. Some of the proceeds will also go into the youth group's treasury. Tickets, which will be sold after all Masses this weekend and at the rectory until May 12, are $3. Call 607/257-2493 for information.

Parish marks 60th year

ROCHESTER — St. Francis of Assisi Parish, at 77 Whitney St., is celebrating its 60th anniversary and has scheduled the following events in May and June:

Parish council installation and a bilingual Mass on Sunday, May 21, at 10 a.m.; Communion breakfast in the church hall on Sunday, June 4; 10th anniversary of the parish Spanish community, Saturday, June 17; and the 25th anniversary of Father Peter Deckman's ordination on Sunday, June 25.

For information on each event, call 716/436-6693.

Society to hold breakfast

AUBURN — The Altar Society of St. Francis of Assisi Parish will sponsor a breakfast Sunday, May 21, from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the school hall. A bake sale will be conducted at the same time as the breakfast.

Tickets for the breakfast may be purchased from a society member, or at the rectory. The price is $3.50 for adults and $1.75 for children ages five-12. Children under five will be admitted without charge. Proceeds from the breakfast will be used to benefit the parish.

Sacrament for the sick planned at Ithaca church

ITHACA — The sacrament of the anointing of the sick will take place at St. Catherine of Siena Church during the 5 p.m. Mass on Saturday, May 20.

People whose health is seriously impaired by sickness or old age — but are still able to get to the church — are invited to attend with their families and friends. Those who need personal assistance and/or transportation in order to attend, call the rectory at 607/257-2493 for information.

NEIGHBORS

Sister Elaine Englert, SSJ, principal of St. Theodore's School, Rochester, has been selected as one of 35 principals nationwide to attend the National Catholic Education Association program held in Washington, D.C., from June 18-23. The week-long session will cover spiritual and academic topics as well as issues involving staff and institutional development, governance and management skills.

Donna Lynn Champlin, a member of St. Lawrence Parish, Rochester, has been named one of 500 semifinalists in the 1989 Presidential Scholars Program. In May, the White House will be naming the 141 Presidential Scholars selected from among the semifinalists.

Sister Linda Tornabene will profess her first vows as a Sister of Mercy of Rochester on Friday, May 12, during a 7:30 p.m. prayer service in the Mercy Motherhouse chapel, 1437 Blossom Rd. The theme she has chosen for the celebration is "With what gift shall we come into God's Presence?"

Sister Linda Tornabene entered the Mercy congregation in 1986 and was received into the Mercy novitiate in 1987. She has received a bachelor's degree in English and a master's degree in education from Nazareth College, as well as a master's degree in education administration from the University of Rochester. She worked for 12 years as a teacher and an administrator in the Rochester City School District. Currently, she is working towards a master of divinity degree at St. Bernard's Institute.

Margaret Hanover, a social studies teacher at Our Lady of Mercy High School, has received the Award for Excellence in Secondary School Teaching from the University of Rochester. Hanover, who has a degree in history from Daemen College, was nominated for the award by the members of the National Honor Society at Mercy.

Five members of the eighth-grade class at St. John of Rochester School, Fairport, have earned scholarships to area Catholic high schools. Jennifer Moldoch, Colleen Kubiak and Amy Downing have won scholarships to Our Lady of Mercy High School. Jim Snyder has received an award from McQuaid Jesuit High School, and Michelle Ferron has won a scholarship to Bishop Kearney High School.
