

Benefit golf tournament set for area country club in July

The Northwest Hearing and Speech Center, Inc., has scheduled its second annual golf tournament for Monday, July 10, at the Salmon Creek Country Club. The cost of the event will be $50, which includes playing fees, golf cart rental and buffet dinner.

The starting time is 10 a.m. No entry fee is required.

Money raised by the tournament is earmarked for the Northwest Hearing and Speech Center, Inc., a not-for-profit agency which serves the speech- and hearing-handicapped while also providing food and clothing for the needy.

Syracuse basketball coach Jim Boheim, Buffalo Bills punter John Kidd and NBC sportscaster Paul Maguire will be among the celebrity golfers.

Call 716/225-1914 for information.

Aquinas basketball coach plans hoop camps for July

Aquinas head basketball coach Mike Dianetti has scheduled two basketball camps for this summer.

A camp for boys in grades 4-12 will take place from June 26 to July 7 at Aquinas, 1127 Dewey Ave., Rochester. The camp will be broken up into three sessions a day, according to the camper's grade level.

A basketball camp for girls in grades 7-12 is scheduled for July 10-14, from 9 a.m. to noon.

Each camp will include videotapes and written evaluations for each participant as well as individual and team awards.

Call Dianetti at 716/254-2020 for information.
