PARISH NOTES

Family festival draws nigh

NEWARK — St. Michael's family festival will take place Friday, June 16, from 5-11 p.m., and Saturday, June 17, from noon to 11.

The festival will feature games, food and rides, and performances by the Piney Mountain Cloggers, the Kountry Kousins Square Dancers and the Upstate String Band.

Among Saturday's events will be a pancake breakfast from 7:30-10:30 a.m., a craft sale running from 9 a.m.-6 p.m., and an auction beginning at 2 p.m.

On Sunday, Father's Day, the parish will also offer a chicken barbecue from 11 a.m.-2:30 p.m. in the parking lot. Dinner will consist of half chickens, potatoes, coleslaw, rolls and dessert. Cost is $4.25 for adults, $2.75 for children. A half chicken alone will cost $3.

Program seeks volunteers

ROCHESTER — Ss. Peter and Paul Church, 720 Main St. W., needs volunteers for its summer program for children ages 5-12. The program will operate during the hours 1-4 p.m. from July 10-21.

In addition to full-time volunteers for the program, the parish also needs people willing to come in one day during the two-week period to share talents in art, music, sports, baking and storytelling. For information, call Irene Goodwin at 716/436-3110.

Chicken barbecue slated

GENEVA — St. Francis DeSales Parish will hold a chicken barbecue Saturday, June 17, beginning at 5:30 p.m.

The menu consists of chicken, tossed salad, macaroni salad, salt potatoes, rolls and beverages. Meals may be eaten at the church, or taken home.

Tickets cost $5 per person, $13 per family (two adults plus children). They may be purchased at the rectory, 130 Exchange St. (315/789-0930) or at St. Francis/St. Stephen's school office, 17 Elmwood Ave. (789-1828).

School volunteers needed

ROCHESTER — Volunteers are needed to teach in a vacation Bible school for children, ages 6-12, from St. Monica's, St. Augustine and Good Counsel parishes. The program will operate five days a week for three weeks beginning July 10.

Activities will include Bible stories, crafts, singing, prayer and snacks. Class size is limited, and children will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. The cost is $10 per week for one child, and $15 per week for a family. Hours are 9:15 a.m.-1 p.m.

For information on volunteering and/or registration, call Betsy Romson at St. Monica's, 716/235-3322.

Bus trip scheduled

ROCHESTER — Blessed Sacrament Parish's evangelization committee is sponsoring a bus trip to the shrine of the North American martyrs at Auriesville, N.Y., on Sunday, June 25.

The bus will leave at 5 a.m. from the church parking lot, the corner of Monroe and Oxford avenues. The bus will leave Auriesville by 3 p.m. For information, call John Lentricchia at 716/442-4607.

Parish youths to aid hungry

DRYDEN — Ten students of Holy Cross parish will be participating in the Planned Famine on June 16-17. The students are seeking sponsors, who will pledge money for each of the 30 hours the students go without food.

Money raised during the event is earmarked for the World Vision's hunger-relief program and the kitchen cupboard in Dryden.

Call 607/844-8314 for information.

Apostolate Mass planned

AUBURN — St. Francis of Assisi Parish will host the Queen of Peace Apostolate's annual June 25 Mass.

The afternoon will begin at 1:30 p.m. with the rosary, followed by Mass at approximately 2:30 and Benediction. If priests are available, confessions will be heard. Father Albert Shamon, the group's chaplain, will be the celebrant.
