PARISH NOTES

Items sought for lawn sale

CANANDAIGUA — Organizers of St. Mary's summer festival are seeking usable items in good condition for a lawn sale to be held July 21 and 22, from 9 a.m.-8 p.m., in conjunction with the festival.

Donations for the sale may be dropped off at the rented storage van, located between the rectory and the church on Saturday mornings. Pick-up service is available by calling Mary Kane at 716/394-0942, or Margaret Hauenstein at 394-5298. Pickups will be arranged for Saturday mornings.

On request, receipts for donations will be given. Organizers ask that no shoes or clothing be donated.

Youth retreat attracts 40 to friary on Cayuga Lake

INTERLAKEN — St. Francis Solanus Parish, in conjunction Holy Cross Parish, Ovid, sponsored a summer retreat program June 26-28 for approximately 40 youths of both parishes. The retreat took place at the St. Fidelis Friary on Lake Cayuga.

Father Gabriel Massaro and 13 other members of the Capuchin Youth Ministry at Garrison, N.Y., directed the program, which taught Christian principles and provided an opportunity for the participants to put these principles into practice.

The youths, ranging in age from 10-18, were at the friary from 1-9 p.m. each day, participating in group discussions, activities, sports and an evening meal. Eight of the youths were introduced to the ministry of clowning, and performed skits for the rest of the group as clowns or mimes. In addition, more than 20 parents participated in a special Eucharist at the end of the retreat.

The event also provided an opportunity parishioners — especially the youths — of the two parishes to work together. Father Nelson Rupert, OFM Cap., pastor of St. Francis, was recently appointed administrator of Holy Cross Parish, whose pastor, Father Edwin R. Wedow, died June 12.

Summer fest scheduled

ROCHESTER — Most Precious Blood Church, 219 Stenson St., has scheduled its annual summer festival for Friday, July 21, and Saturday, July 22. This year's festival will feature foods with an "olde world" flavor, a country store, craft booth, and games for children and adults. Gary Nacca's "Music to Go" will also be on hand.

For information, call Cathy Hiler at 716/225-3994.

NEIGHBORS

Judith Lee Knapp, formerly of St. John's Parish, Clyde, has been received into the novitiate of the Franciscan Sisters Third Order Regular of Penance of the Sorrowful Mother.

At ceremonies held June 3 at Christ the King Chapel, Franciscan University of Steubenville in Ohio, she took the name Sister Judanne. She will spend the next 14 months with four other new novices in the novitiate at the order's motherhouse in Steubenville.

The group is a religious order in formation, called an Association of the Faithful according to church law.

The Catholic Daughters of the Americas, Court Annunciation #416, Geneva, has installed officers for 1989-91.

Anna DeJohn, will serve as regent; Margaret Crowley, first vice-regent; Verna Grau, second vice-regent; Anna DeMaria, financial secretary; Eleanor Heffernan, treasurer; Sue Pane, recording secretary; Madeline DeMaria, monitor; Mary Felicetti, Jane McElroy and Jean Fleming, trustees; and Marianna Morocco, ceremonial coordinator.

Heffernan, the outgoing regent, was presented with a gift in appreciation for her years of service.

The court also voted to give a $100 merit award to a deserving girl in the June graduating class of St. Francis deSales/St. Stephen's School who will be entering DeSales High School in September.

Six employees of St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira, were presented 1989 care-giver awards Thursday, May 11, for "displaying compassion and a caring attitude to patients, families and co-workers." The six are: Ann Osbourne, Sandy Harter, Jackie Allington, Connie O'Herron, Betty Swanson and Mike Austin.

Aquinas Institute freshman Mario Falone won a semi-finalist trophy at the National Catholic Forensic League's Grand Tournament held Memorial Day weekend in Philadelphia. One of 168 contestants, he placed in the top 12 speakers in the country and was the only freshman among the semi-finalists.

DePaul Mental Health Services Continuing Treatment Program has been reorganized, with Marilyn Corrigan being appointed program coordinator. Eileen Brophy and Sara VanBortel have been named team leaders, Tracy Vogl as rehabilitation coordinator, Nicole LaBrecque and Ruta Klimas as supervising counselors, and Herba Clark as prevocational community liaison.

DePaul has also announced two promotions in its Mental Health Services Adult Community Program. Paul Preston is the new associate director and Jeanine Ruggeri has been appointed clinical administrator for three residences.

St. John Fisher College's Continuing Education Office has named Tam Spitzer, Ph.D., associate professor of psychology and teacher education at the college, the winner of the 1989 Outstanding Faculty award. The annual award is given to an instructor who is committed to the needs of traditional and non-traditional students. A committee consisting of previous award winners, staff members and two current continuing-education students selects the award winner.

Spitzer, who has been teaching at Fisher since 1971, specializes in child development and issues relating to children and education.

At the second annual dinner of the Roman Catholic Diocesan Board of Social Ministry, held June 2, James Delaney, Richard Krivonyak and Carl Ritz were presented with the Bradley-Staub Awards in recognition of their service. Delaney is the resettlement manager of refugee services at the Catholic Family Center. Krivonyak received the award posthumously for his advocacy for disabled people. Ritz serves as the director of the Finger Lakes Office of Social Ministry's program for the divorced, separated, widowed and bereaved.

The following graduating students from Holy Family Junior High School, Elmira, earned Presidential Academic Fitness awards for 1989: Sean Bannon, Carrie Cokely, Rebecca Fagan, Kellie Lunney, Michael McNamara, Brian Milford, Lisa Punzo, Kimberly Pushic, Sara Spencer, and Timothy Woodhouse. The award is given to eighth-grade students who have maintained an average of B+ or above for their two years of junior high school.
