PARISH NOTES

Single-adult ministry schedules August events

PITTSFORD — The single adult ministry at St. Louis Church, 11 Rand Place, has planned two evenings at the Finger Lakes Performing Arts Center in Canandaigua.

The group will attend a "Silver Screen Celebration," on Sunday, Aug. 6, at 7:30 p.m. The concert will feature musical excerpts from such films as E.T., Moonstruck, On Golden Pond, Psycho and Gone with the Wind.

The other event will be to hear jazz trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie perform with the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra on Saturday, Aug. 26, at 8 p.m.

Gates for both shows will open at 6 p.m., and $7 lawn tickets can be purchased in advance at the RPO box office, 716/454-2620, or at the door. Group members will have a sign on the hillside to identify them. Those who need rides or would be willing to drive others may call Georgia Crissy at 716/924-7377 for the Aug. 6 show, and Laurie Frykholm, 716/586-1646, for the Aug. 26 show.

Wayland parish planning annual summer festival

WAYLAND — St. Joseph's parish has scheduled its 22nd annual summer festival for August 4 and 5.

Flea market organizers need saleable items for the booth. Items in good condition may be left at the rectory weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Rosary Society, which is sponsoring a country store booth, needs donations of new handicrafts, jams and jellies, fruits and vegetables, candies, baked goods and more. Proceeds from this booth will go directly to the festival.

Donators should give suggested selling prices to their items, which should also be left at the rectory, 206 Fremont St., Wayland.

Festival organizers are also asking each family to donate two cakes for the cake booth.

Call 716/728-2228 for information.

Hornell school needs help to get sports equipment

HORNELL — St. Ann School is seeking community assistance in collecting proof-of-purchase symbols in order to obtain free sports equipment.

The parish school is participating in "Play Ball," a program that offers the equipment in return for proofs-of-purchase — the black-and-white striped UPC symbols — from the following products: Clorox Liquid Bleach; Clorox 2; Formula 409; Soft Scrub cleaner; Franco-American pasta products; Hidden Valley Ranch dressings; Keebler cookies, crackers, snacks, Elfin Loaves and Ready Crust; Kingsford, Matchlight and BBQ Bag charcoal briquets; and Konica film.

Contributions can be dropped off at the school office or in marked boxes at St. Ann's Church.

Shows to benefit school

GENEVA — The St. Francis/St. Stephen's School Fund Raising Committee is sponsoring two evenings of music at the Finger Lakes Performing Arts Center, Canandaigua. Performances will take place at 8 p.m. Saturday, July 29, and 7:30 p.m. Sunday, July 30.

Lawn seats cost $7; shell seats $15. The school will benefit only from tickets sold through the school, the parishes, the Geneva Knights of Columbus, the American Legion, and the following stores: Baroodys, Cass TV, Super Casuals and Smaldones.

NEIGHBORS

Sister Mary Sullivan, RSM, was the featured speaker at the annual governing board meeting of the Federation of Sisters of Mercy of the Americas, held June 23-27 in Manchester, NH.

A professor of language and literature in the College of Liberal Arts at Rochester Institute of Technology, Sister Sullivan spoke to the assembled leaders of the 27 Mercy units from across the country about the reading, writing and prayers of Catherine McAuley, foundress of the Sisters of Mercy congregation. Sister Sullivan earned her master of theology degree from London University, Heythrop College, Great Britain, with a dissertation entitled, "A Contemporary Critique of the Christology of Catherine McAuley."

John W. Crowe, chairman of the management committee of the law firm Mousaw, Vigdor, Reeves, Heilbrunner & Kroll, has been elected to a third term as president of the Bishop Sheen Ecumenical Housing Foundation.

Through a variety of financial and technical-assistance programs, the foundation provides housing opportunities for low and moderate income families. Administration costs for the foundation are funded by the Roman Catholic and Episcopal dioceses of Rochester.

Crowe has served as chairman of the National Advisory Council of the American Catholic Bishops and is a past president of the Notre Dame Alumni Association. He is currently a trustee of McQuaid Jesuit High School and is vice chairman of the Bishop's Commission on Reorganization of Catholic Schools.

Sister Nancy Kelly, RSM, principal of St. Joseph's School, Penfield, has been re-elected to a second term on the executive board of the Catholic School Administrators Association of New York State. In this position, she represents the elementary school principals of the Diocese of Rochester.

Frances L. Marx has been named interim development director at St. Joseph's Villa of Rochester. In this capacity, she will administer the agency's $1.5 million capital campaign to build a new school. She will also oversee the villa's overall fund raising activities.

Marx comes to the villa from Home Away From Home, Inc., where she spearheaded the capital building campaign for the Ronald McDonald House of Rochester. She also previously served as executive director of the SUNY Brockport Foundation.
