

David Duggan (left) prepares to hit the ball as Mike Brenner attempts to block. Duggan, a former star and 25-year veteran of the game, and his teammates found the 90-degree temperatures somewhat difficult to play in as compared to the cooler temperatures they're used to in their homeland.

St. John Fisher College played host to the De LaSalle Hurling Club from Waterford, Ireland, on Sunday, July 23. The team participated in an exhibition displaying the techniques and skill required in the Irish national sport. Here, Mike Brenner runs with the ball as he balances it on his hurling stick. Mike Lane follows close behind.

Webster tabs Morrison girls' basketball coach

Scott Morrison has been named the new girls soccer coach at Webster High School, replacing the retired Judy Shelton, who had coached the Warriors' coach since Schroeder and Thomas schools merged in 1983-84. Previously she was the coach at Schroeder.

Morrison, who was 97-15-10 as Cardinal Mooney's girls soccer coach the last seven years, takes over a varsity program that was 6-10 against Monroe County League teams last fall and 9-11 overall.

A resident of Webster, Morrison is looking forward to the challenge of taking over a girls' soccer program that battles against the likes of defending Sect. 5 Class AA

Msgr. Shannon to conduct retreat on prayer at Cenacle

The Cenacle has scheduled a retreat entitled "Prayer: The Awareness of God" for August 4-6, at the Cenacle, 693 East Ave., Rochester.

The retreat, which will be conducted by Monsignor William H. Shannon, invites participants to discover the beauty and power of prayer. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. Friday and close at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday. Offering for the weekend is $65.

Call the Cenacle, 716/271-8755, for information.

"I've always respected (Webster's) program," said Morrison, who inquired about the Webster job the day Mooney's closing was announced. "They were always a very controlled team on and off the field.

As far as talent goes," he added, "I'm trying to evaluate that right now."

Coaching girls soccer is nothing new to Morrison, but he did admit that he's a little unaccustomed to the "numbers" he has to choose from at Webster. "They have two modified teams, a JV and a varsity," Morrison said. "This could take a little getting used to."

Morrison has already set up several non-league encounters, including a match against former Private-Parochial League foe Our Lady of Mercy.

Becoming the new girls' soccer coach at Webster means Morrison — now a business teacher at Aquinas — will be coaching in the fall and winter this school year. He will also assist Aquinas girls' basketball coach Dan Bates with the Little Irish on the court.

Morrison was 85-14 in five years as Mooney's girls' basketball coach, guiding the Cards to the Sect. 5 Class BB championship last season.

Batavia ND grad heading for St. John Fisher this fall

ROCHESTER — LeRoy resident David Panepento, a 1989 graduate of Notre Dame High School in Batavia, will attend St. John Fisher College this fall.

Panepento pitched and played both infield and outfield for a Notre Dame team that went 13-5 and placed second in its division last season. The team's most valuable player his freshman and senior years, Panepento helped Notre Dame to the Section 5 Class C championship in 1987. Last season he batted .333 and had a 1.05 ERA. He averaged 11 strikeouts, two hits and two walks per game.

"Dave is an outstanding pitcher with good velocity and movement on his fastball," said LeRoy native and 1979 ND graduate Robert M. Simms, who coached Fisher to a 13-6 record last season. "He definitely will be able to help us his freshman year."

Chenango Forks grad will attend Fisher college

ROCHESTER — Ten years after graduating from high school, Saquoit resident Scott Card will be back in the classroom.

Card, a 1979 graduate of Chenango Forks Central School in Binghamton, will attend St. John Fisher College this fall. There he is expected to play baseball, a sport in which he excelled in high school.

As a junior at New Hartford Central School, Card batted .410 and committed only three errors from his shortstop position in 25 games. He was named to the Central Oneida League all-star squad. The following season at Chenango Forks Central School in Binghamton, Card batted .388, stole 14 bases and committed only six errors in 33 games. He was named to the Southern Tier Baseball League all-star team.

"Scott is a very good infielder, and that should be a help in filling the hole we have at shortstop," said St. John Fisher baseball coach Robert M. Simms.

A varsity letterman and honor-roll student in high school, Card has been attending Mohawk Valley Community College for the past two years.
