Ysidore R. Perez
B.S., M.A. University of Rochester
Teacher of Latin, Spanish

We teach ancient ideas at Allendale Columbia School.

"I teach Latin to open doors to the past and future. I consider it essential to know something of classical language, ideas, literature and laws which are the basis for our own life and values.

My hope is that my students will be intrigued; my expectation is they will begin to think."

Allendale Columbia School provides a challenging educational experience for all students.

See for yourself at our OPEN HOUSE and VISITORS WEEK.
