PARISH NOTES

Priest offers slide show

PENN YAN — Father David Mura, who recently returned from a sabbatical in Israel, will present a slide show about Israel on Sunday, Aug. 27, following the 11 a.m. Mass at St. Michael's Parish.

The parish also offers opportunities to pray and study the rosary with others on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. The Monday sessions, which run from 7:30-8:30 p.m., feature 15 decades in reparation for the sins of abortion. On Wednesdays, 15 decades are said from 10:30-11:30 a.m. for the holiness of priests. On Thursdays, from 7:30-8:30 p.m., five decades of the rosary are followed by a talk.

The rosary sessions take place in the church. All are welcome.

Class reunion scheduled

ROCHESTER — The St. Ambrose School class of 1939 will celebrate its 50th-anniversary reunion on Sunday, Oct. 8, at 4 p.m. in the home of James Deisenroth in Palmyra. The reunion committee is looking for the addresses of class members.

Anyone who can provide information on missing classmates is asked to call Donald Metzger, 716/467-3953, or Martha Tierney Kolb, 482-6917. Those attending the reunion will be sent flyers with directions to the Deisenroths's home.

Group seeking recruits

WATERLOO — St. Mary's folk group is seeking new members, both singers and musicians. Contact Bob Dinan at 315/539-8732 or inquire at the rectory, 539-2944.

NEIGHBORS

Carolyn Rosica, a member of St. Ambrose Parish, was received into the novitiate of the Sisters of Mercy of Rochester Monday, July 31, during a prayer service at the Mercy motherhouse, 1437 Blossom Road, Rochester.

A 1979 graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School, Rosica became a candidate in the Mercy congregation in August, 1988, and lived for the last year with the community of sisters at Holy Cross Convent, Charlotte. She earned a bachelor's degree from Nazareth College in 1983, and a master's degree in elementary education from the College of New Rochelle in 1985. From 1985 to 1989, she taught third grade at St. Andrew's School.

Rosica will spend her canonical novitiate year with approximately 12 other Mercy novices from across the country at the Mercy Collaborative Novitiate in Philadelphia. This program is intended to provide an opportunity for bonding among Mercy novices early in their incorporation process and to give each novice a peer group with whom to grow and interact during their formation.

Frank Barski and Sharon Milewski received awards at graduation ceremonies for St. Hyacinth School, Auburn, earlier this year. Barski received the St. Hyacinth Alumni Association's award for academic achievement, and Milewski earned the St. Hyacinth PTO award for being a good Catholic role model to her peers. Both students were presented with savings bonds.

St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira, has announced that Pam Grant, head nurse of the intensive care unit, has been appointed to the Pittsburgh Transplant Foundation's advisory council. The council has been es-

Rite information night set

AURORA — The Cayuga Team Ministry will hold an informational meeting Thursday, Sept. 7, to explain the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. The meeting will take place at 7:30 p.m. at St. Patrick's rectory.

The meeting is open to people who are already members of the parish, those who wish to learn more about the parish and the Catholic faith, and those who are interested in becoming Catholics.

For more information, call Sister Pat Flass at 315/253-0983 or 364-7747.

Sports program feast set

NEWARK — St. Michael's sports program will sponsor a chicken barbecue and bake sale Saturday, Aug. 26, at ProMay Mall, from 11 a.m.-3 p.m.

Cost for the dinner will be $4.75. Advance tickets are available by calling Dave or Monica Lyon at 315/331-1411.

The parish food closet is in need of food. Parishioners are asked to bring in canned goods, cereal and crackers to help build up supplies.

Parish to mark 90th year

ROCHESTER — St. Monica's Parish, 831 Genesee St., will celebrate its 90th anniversary on Sunday, Aug. 27, beginning with 11 a.m. Mass and followed by food, music and storytelling. All parishioners, friends and neighbors are welcome, and a special invitation is extended to priests and sisters who have been associated with the parish over the years.

For information, call Sister Lorraine Julien at 716/235-3322.

established to assist the foundation in developing policies and procedures for the identification, recovery and distribution of post mortem organs and tissues for transplantation.

Richard Pilliter, a 20-year veteran teacher at Aquinas Institute, participated in the Taft Seminar held on the campus of the State University of New York at Brockport July 17-28. A 1963 graduate of Aquinas, Pilliter pioneered the advanced placement course in government at Aquinas and also designed a political science course which won state approval for inclusion in its social studies curriculum.

Anne Pero, a graduate of St. Cecelia's School and Nazareth Academy, was named to the 1989 spring dean's list at Le Moyne College, Syracuse. A psychology major, she achieved a grade-point average of 3.7.

Nicole Motell, a member of St. Patrick's Parish, Owego, has been awarded a $1,000 scholarship from the Catholic Daughters of the Americas. She will be attending Marywood College in Scranton, Pa., this fall to pursue studies in foreign languages.

Notre Dame High School has announced that the following incoming students have won two-year, $200 scholarships: Sean Bannon, Courtney Butler, Emily Choi, Carrie Cokely, Brian Conaghan, Patricia Dienhart, Melissa Malia, Andrea Morrell, Sara Spencer and Timothy Woodhouse.

During the past school year, eight students at Holy Cross School, Rochester, successfully completed the Great Books Program, which introduces students to classics of world literature. The eighth-graders were: Nicole Fink, Jaime Tackett, Matt DiPaola and Christian DiPaola. Seventh-grade students finishing the program were: Dan Bachman, Carrie Jone, Heather Fahey and Tricia Delibert.
