PARISH NOTES

Series of teleconferences set for St. Mary's in Bath

BATH — A series of teleconferences for pastoral ministers, parents and teens will be presented at St. Mary's Tuesdays, Oct. 3, 10 and 17 through the facilities of the Catholic Telecommunications Network of America.

The series will take place from 7-9 p.m. Father Don Kimball, nationally recognized for his experience in youth ministry, will host the teleconferences.

Topics will include talking and listening to a teenager; dealing with a teenager's friends; and sharing faith with a teenager.

The cost for all three teleconferences is $5 per person or $10 per family or parish staff.

The series will also be presented at the Pastoral Center, 1150 Buffalo Road, Rochester.

For reservations or information, call 716/328-3210.

Annual marathon at hand for school in Canandaigua

CANANDAIGUA — The fifth-annual marathon at St. Mary's School will take place Saturday, Oct. 7, at 9 a.m.

The race, which is sponsored by the New York State Federation of Catholic School Parents, is designed to raise money for the school and to promote Catholic education. Participants will walk or run six miles along the streets of Canandaigua (primary grade children will only have to travel two miles, but will be credited for six). Sponsors will pledge a minimum of 50 cents per mile.

Pledge cards are available at the school office. Registration will take place in the school parking lot at 8:30 a.m. on the day of the race.

Registration deadline nears

PALMYRA — A bus trip from St. Anne's Parish to Atlantic City is scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 18, and Thursday, Oct. 19.

The bus will leave St. Anne's parking lot at 6:30 a.m. on Wednesday and will return early the following morning. Cost for the trip is $32.95. Reservations must be made by Sept. 27.

Seating is limited. To make a reservation, call the rectory at 315/597-4571.

Clinton V. Strickland, Jr., a member of Immaculate Conception Parish, has been appointed principal of Trevor G. Browne High School in Phoenix, Ariz. He had served in the Rochester City School District for 16 years, including stints as administrator on special assignment to Superintendent Laval Wilson from 1985-86 for a project on discipline in the city district.

A graduate of the University of Rochester, where he attained both bachelor's and master's degrees, Strickland is currently working on a doctorate at Arizona State University. He was president of the parish council at Immaculate Conception from 1987-89, a member of the Office of Black Ministries and a board member of Social Ministries for the Diocese of Rochester.

Six members of the DeSales High School, Geneva, cheerleading squad attended the Pine Forest Cheerleading Camp in Greely, Pa., this summer. Attending were: seniors Stacie Cook and Karen Buckley; junior Tricia Wolf; sophomores Mari Caravita and Heather Hinkle; and freshman Christie Prindle.

The team received one superior and three excellent ratings, and one squad achievement ribbon during the four-day camp. The team was also awarded the "Spirit Stick" for sportsmanship, good relations with other squads and spirit.

Feast day celebration set

AUBURN — St. Francis of Assisi Parish will celebrate the feast day of St. Francis with a chicken and ham dinner on Sunday, Oct. 1, at 5:30 p.m.

The meal will be served cafeteria style. The evening will include music and entertainment.

Tickets will be on sale after weekend Masses or at the rectory. Cost is $6.50 for adults and $3.50 for children under 12. Children under 6 will be admitted for free.

The annual Blessed Trinity Benefit dinner will take place Saturday, Oct. 14, at the Holiday Inn. For reservations, call Dawn Wayne at 315/253-4159.

Prayer seminar planned

CHILI — The prayer group at St. Pius the Tenth Parish will conduct its "Life in the Spirit" seminar every Wednesday for seven weeks, beginning Sept. 27. Each session will take place from 7:30-9:30 p.m. in the parish meeting room.

The seminar will focus on the search for a more personal relationship with Jesus through the working of the Holy Spirit in one's life. For information, call Jean Shelter, 716/247-3444, or Phyllis Clausen, 889-3721.

Shelter looks for staff

Bethany House of Hospitality, a women's and children's shelter, needs part- and or full-time staff to work afternoons, evenings or nights. Room, board and insurance will be provided if needed.

Bethany House's guests come from experiences of eviction, abuse, imprisonment and illness. The Catholic Worker principles of hospitality, advocacy, poverty, pacifism and personalism provide a framework for the house's ministry. Please contact Donna Ecker or Mary Randall at 454-4197 if interested.

Harvest supper on tap

RED CREEK — St. Thomas Church, part of the Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity, will host its annual harvest supper Saturday, Sept. 23, beginning at 4:30 p.m.

Cost for the supper is $5 for adults, $4 for senior citizens and $3 for children 12 and under. Children under 5 may eat for free.

NEIGHBORS

Cook was one of 12 girls nominated for the NCA All-American, and was invited to join the camp's staff in the summer of 1990.

St. John Fisher College has appointed Sylvia Renee Carey as director of the Higher Education Opportunity Program at the college. She is a graduate from the State University of New York College at Oneonta and holds a master's degree in social science from SUNY at Binghamton. Prior to her appointment at Fisher, she directed educational opportunity programs at Broome Community College.

The Greece Youth Athletic Association won the 13-year-old division of the West-side Baseball Travel League with a 12-member team that included five students from Catholic schools. Fred Tillinghast of St. Theodore's School was the team's top hitter, with 13 RBI and a .512 batting average. Joe Piazza of Aquinas Institute hit .387 and drove in nine runs. Another Aquinas student, Ron Miner, led the pitching staff with three complete games, and batted .314 while driving in seven runs. St. John the Evangelist School student Jim Miner knocked in six runs and hit .200, and Chad Miauri of St. Lawrence School likewise drove in six runs while batting .222.
