

A Message from the Director

On this Mission Sunday, I would like to take the opportunity to express a sincere thank you to all you good people of the Diocese of Rochester for your great love and generosity to the Missions during the past year. Among the nearly one hundred and seventy-five dioceses throughout the United States, the Diocese of Rochester ranks number twenty in total contributions to the General Fund of the Propagation of the Faith and to the Society of St. Peter Apostle.

$705,233 was given to the general Fund and $20,672 in support of mission seminarians through the Society of St. Peter Apostle. These two figures plus the many other contributions to the Missions during the year give witness to a strong faith and a deep sense of commitment to serve God's people.

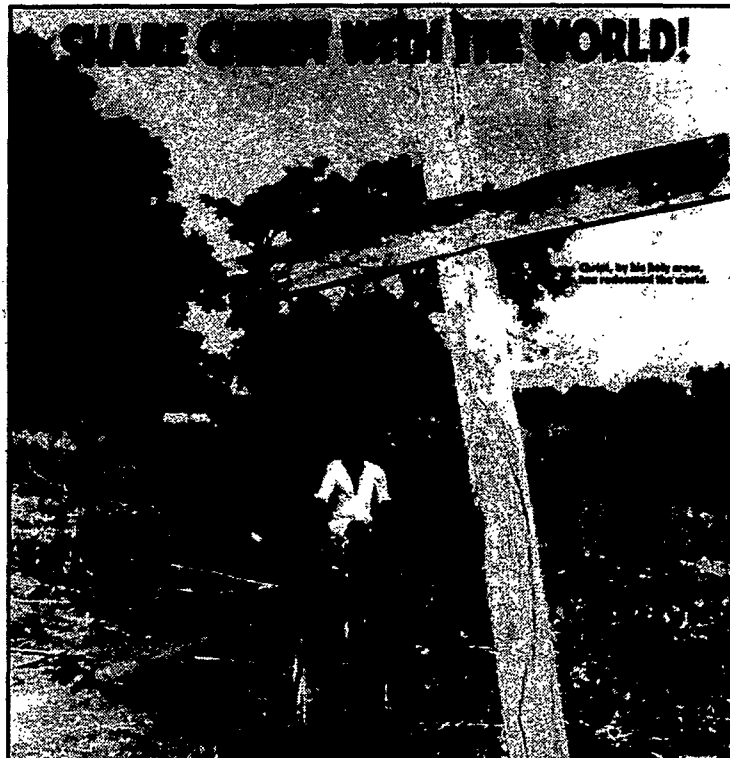

Each one of us, baptized into the family of Christ, is called to be missionary, not as an "extra" in our life of faith, but as part of our day-by-day following of Christ.

Some answer the call to mission by serving far from home. Perhaps you are called to this vocation!

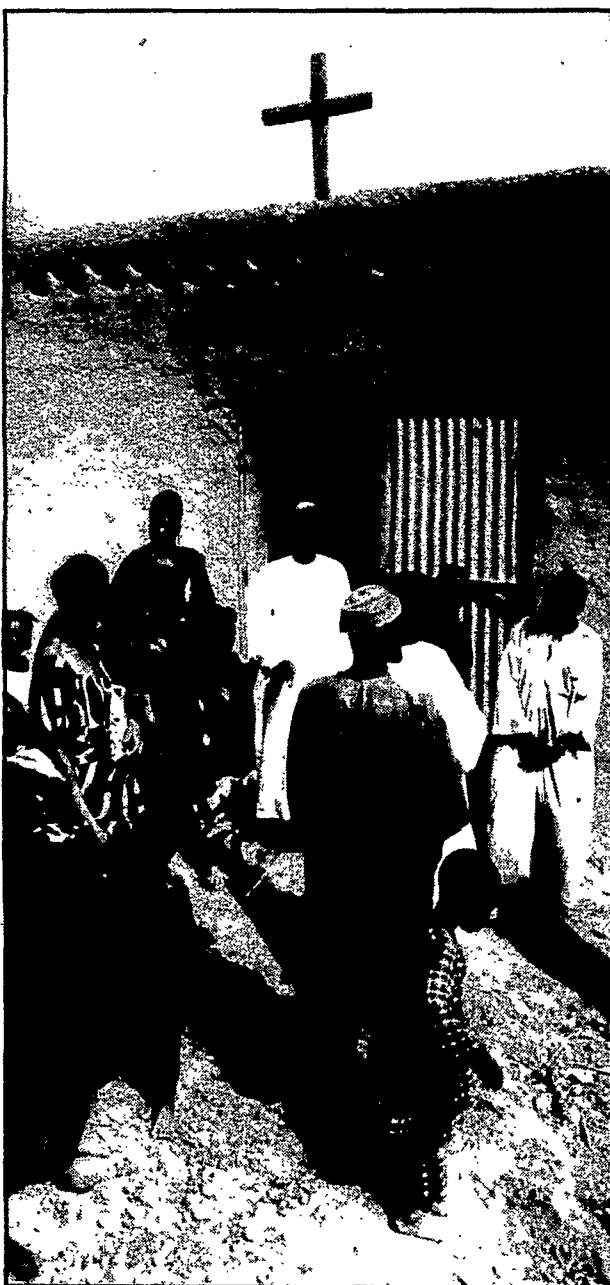

Most of us answer the call by praying for missionaries and those they serve, by offering for them our personal suffering in union with the suffering of Christ, and by providing financial support so critically needed where the Church is very poor.

On this World Mission Sunday, I ask you once again to be as generous as possible. Help share Christ with the world. Two-Thirds of our sisters and brothers throughout the world have yet to hear this Good News! Who will tell them? You and I must tell them!
