

Funds for Bibles sought

CAYUGA COUNTY — The Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity is seeking funds to help continue its ministry of supplying Bibles and rosaries for the inmates of the Butler Shock Incarceration Camp.

Anyone interested in contributing to the effort should send a donation to St. Mary Magdalene Church, Washington St., Wolcott, N.Y., 14590. Be sure to indicate that the money is for the prison program.

Anti-porn effort planned

AUBURN — As part of the White Ribbon Against Pornography campaign, "Pornography Awareness Week" will take place October 29 to November 5.

Among those events planned are a motorcade slated for Saturday, Nov. 4, at 9:30 a.m. The motorcade will proceed from St. Alphonsus Church to Willard Chapel, where a rally will take place.

Speakers will include Monica Kaiser from New York City's Covenant House, and Lou Bivona of the Adam Walsh Child Resource Center in Rochester.

Social ministry committee schedules sale in Elmira

ELMIRA — The Social Ministry Committee of Our Lady of Lourdes Church has scheduled a rummage sale for Saturday, Nov. 4, in the church hall.

Organizers are requesting that parishioners put aside such items as infant and children's clothing, furniture, lamps, draperies, utensils and dishes.

Tax deduction slips for donations can be obtained. Call 607/732-6261 for information.

Notre Dame student wins youth award scholarship

ELMIRA — The Elmira Rotary Club has named Danielle E. Allaire, a senior at Elmira Notre Dame High School, the winner of the Youth Salute Award. The award, which carries a four-year scholarship totaling $2,000, is awarded based on an essay discussing the applicant's greatest personal contribution in high school.

Allaire will represent Elmira at a National Youth Salute Leadership Day later this fall at Washington University in St. Louis, Mo.

Amy Farstad, who is also a student at Notre Dame, was second runner-up, and received a $100 scholarship.

Parish to mark 50th year

GATES — St. Helen's Church will begin its 50th anniversary celebration with a dinner dance in the parish center on Saturday, Oct. 28, at 6:30 p.m.

Bishop Matthew H. Clark will celebrate the 11:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, Oct. 29. The Mass will be followed by a reception hosted by the Home/School Association.

Other highlights of the jubilee year will include:

- A banner adorned with the jubilee logo hanging on the outside of the church.

- A series of national and local speakers, including Father Charles Curran, moral theologian, on Dec. 2-3; Sister Clare Fitzgerald, national promoter of Catholic schools, on Feb. 3-4; and Father James Callan, pastor of Corpus Christi Church, Rochester, on March 17-18.

T-shirts and golf shirts with the jubilee logo will also be available. For information, call 716/235-1210.

Parish closet needs clothes

SODUS — Men's clothing, especially winter outerwear, is needed for Church of the Epiphany's clothes closet.

Children's clothing (sizes six to 14) is also needed. Donations may be left either at the back of the church, or at the rectory.

The parish will also host a workshop on "Discipline in Love," Saturday, Nov. 4, from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. The workshop will be conducted by Theresa Gall, religious education coordinator at St. Thomas Aquinas, Leicester and St. Lucy, Retsof. Participants are asked to bring their own lunch; beverages will be provided.

Parishioners may attend the workshop for free. Cost for non-parishioners is $5.

If you have any questions about the workshop, call Rose Leisenring at 315/483-8687.

Healing priest to conduct services in Alfred, Hornell

Father Edward McDonough, C.S.R., a healing priest from Boston, will conduct a day of teaching Saturday, Nov. 4, from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the St. Jude Center on the campus of Alfred State College.

The program will be followed by a Mass in St. Jude's chapel at 4 p.m.

Those attending the program, which is open to the public and costs $5, should bring a brown-bag lunch. No pre-registration is required.

Father McDonough will conduct a healing service at St. Ann's Church in Hornell on Sunday, Nov. 5, at 3 p.m.

The priest is a member of the religious order of the Redemptorists. He conducts seminars on healing and healing services in the United States and abroad.

Halloween party planned

PERKINSVILLE — The Family Life Committee of Sacred Heart Parish is sponsoring a Halloween costume party for all parish families on Saturday, Oct. 28, at 6 p.m. in the Perkinsville Fire Hall.

The party will feature a parade and judging of costumes as well as a spook house and refreshments.

Call 716/384-5500 for information.

Parish aiding food cupboard

ELMIRA — Our Lady of Lourdes is among a host of area parishes helping contribute food, paper products and toiletries to the food cupboard.

All donations can be left at the entrances to the church. Those people who would rather contribute money should send checks to: Emergency Services, Southern Tier Office of Social Ministry, 160 High St., Elmira, N.Y., 14901.

Twenty-month-old Adam Contant learns the wiggle part of the "chicken" dance from his mom Michelle during Saturday's hoedown. Despite his parents' attempts to teach him, Adam was more interested in climbing over chairs than square-dancing the night away.
