the arsenals of nations and prohibition of their use "by international law."

The section on the Seventh and Tenth Commandments includes a treatment of such issues as poverty, development of nations, ownership, work, employer-employee relations, economic systems and proper use of natural resources.

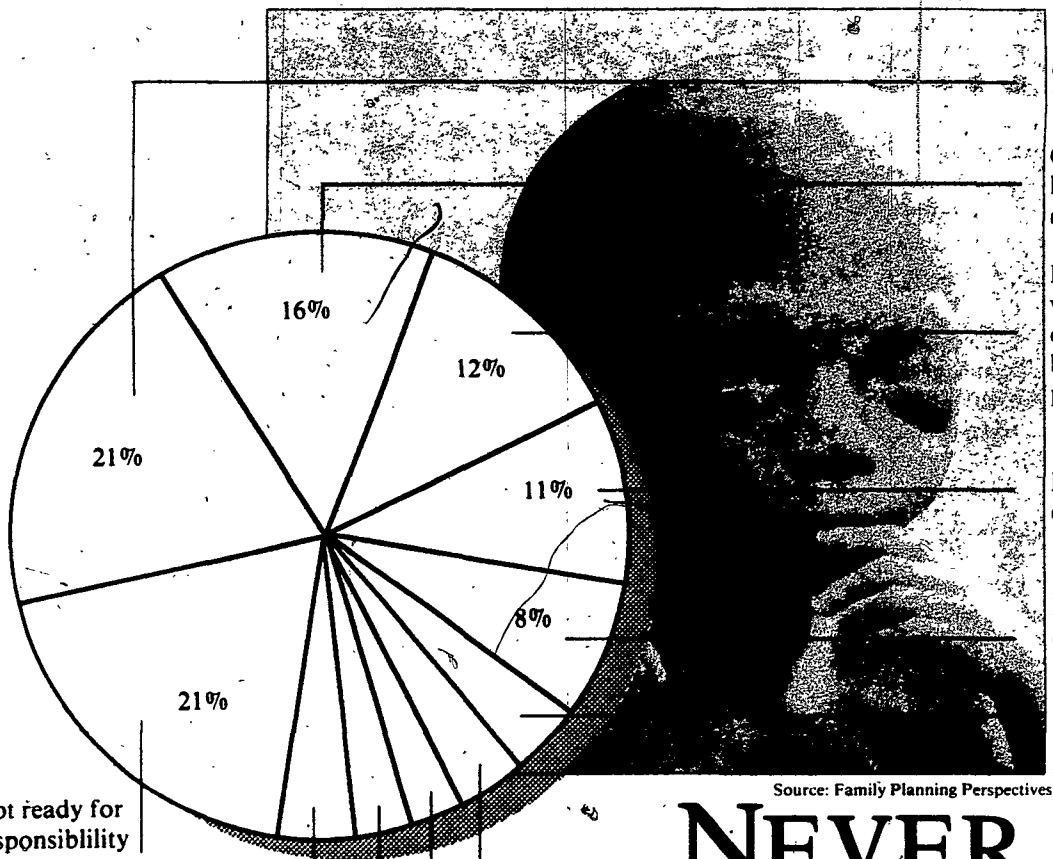

The draft tries to show a sensitivity to the Eastern rites of the church in areas where Eastern and Western traditions differ, explaining the legitimacy of each tradition and how each arose historically. It explains, for example, the Eastern traditions of married priesthood, of administering confirmation at the same time as baptism, and of considering the priest the minister of the sacrament of matrimony, while the Latin Church considers the bride and groom the ministers of the sacrament.

Along with the draft, the catechism commission sent bishops form sheets to submit individual amendments to the text and a separate set of form sheets to answer a series of general questions about the completeness, precision and style of the whole document and of each of its major sections.

PUPPET PROTEST — Protesters opposed to U.S. aid to El Salvador used puppets to emphasize their message, "Stop the Slaughter," during a rally outside President Bush's vacation home in Kennebunkport, Me., Saturday, Dec. 23. The puppets had been brought to the rally from Vermont by the Bread and Puppet Theatre.

THERE IS NEVER A "GOOD REASON"
 TO KILL A BABY...

- Can't afford baby
- Concerned about how baby would change her life
- Has problems with father or doesn't want to be a single parent
- Not mature or old enough
- Has all the children she wants
- Fetus's possible health problem

NEVER.

Some people misunderstand the word abortion.

Abortion means just one thing; the deliberate killing of a preborn child.

No abortion is ever performed to "save the life of the mother." Oh yes, it is sometimes necessary to undertake surgical procedures (such as a Fallopian section in the case of ectopic pregnancies) which indirectly take the life of the baby, but these aren't abortions!

The vast majority of abortions, 96% or more are performed for reasons of convenience to the mother!

It's time to speak out against abortion and YOU can make the difference.

Don't be a part of the silent uncounted. Speak out now for life. Look for your insert in this paper in two weeks.
