

Father Raymond Schantz, C.S.S.R., Rochester native

Father Raymond Schantz, C.S.S.R., a Rochester native and pastor of churches in Virginia, Florida and Georgia for the past 38 years, died at the U.S. Army Medical Center in Atlanta, Ga., on Feb. 20, 1990, from a serious heart condition. He was 71 years old.

According to Sister Dorothy Marie Schantz, SSJ, one of Father Schantz's five living sisters, her brother "showed a great zeal for the salvation of souls."

"In his missionary work ... he had the ability to reach all age groups," Sister Schantz said. "The parishioners loved and respected him."

Sister Schantz added that through the cooperation of parishioners and Father Schantz's expertise in planning and finances, "many parishes can now boast of a new or renovated church, a new rectory or a new parish hall."

"It can be said of him that he truly lived his motto, 'All glory, honor and power to God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and forever, Amen,'" she said.

A native of Rochester, Father Schantz was born July 13, 1918, the son of the late George and Anna Schantz. He is descended from the pioneer Klem family. His paternal grandmother was the second child of Bernard Klem.

After graduating from Blessed Sacrament and Monroe High schools, Father Schantz entered the Redemptorist Seminary in Pennsylvania in 1939.

He was ordained to the priesthood on June 18, 1950. His first solemn Mass was celebrated in the former St. Joseph's Church in Rochester, where his uncle, Father Joseph Schantz, C.S.S.R., had offered his first Mass in January, 1887.

Funeral services for Father Schantz were held in St. John's Church, Thomaston, Ga., where he had been pastor for the past six years.

A memorial Mass was also celebrated at Our Lady of Victory Church, Rochester, on Saturday, Feb. 24.

In addition to Sister Schantz, Father Schantz is survived by four other sisters: Sister Marian Elizabeth Schantz, RSM; Mrs. Florence Vick, and Geraldine Schantz, all of Rochester; and Mrs. Barbara Kramer of Pinellas Park, Fla.; as well as eight nieces and nephews.

Sister Mary P. Gaudette, SSND

Monsignor William H. Shannon celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial for Sister Ursula Reardon, SSJ, in the motherhouse chapel on Saturday, Feb. 17. Sister Reardon died in St. Joseph Convent Infirmary on Feb. 15, 1990. She was 87.

Born in Horseheads, Sister Reardon entered the Sisters of St. Joseph from St. Mary's Parish, Elmira, in 1928.

A graduate of Elmira Free Academy, she earned her teacher's certificate from Nazareth Normal School, a baccalaureate degree in secretarial science from Nazareth College and a master's degree from the State University of New York at Albany. She had permanent certification as a teacher of business and commerce from New York state.

After teaching at St. Stephen's School, Geneva, from 1930-39, Sister Reardon taught business at Nazareth Academy until — because of her failing health — she retired from teaching in 1977. She continued to help in the records department at Nazareth until 1982. Sister Reardon moved to St. Joseph Convent Infirmary later that year.

In preparing her students for the working world, Sister Reardon emphasized loyalty to employers and proper dress. She took much satisfaction in knowing that many of her students obtained excellent jobs after they graduated from school.

She is survived by one brother, James Reardon, of LeMoyné, Pa.; as well as nieces and nephews.

Sister Mary Pauline Gaudette, SSND, a former teacher at Holy Redeemer School in Rochester, died Jan. 12, 1990, in Norwalk Hospital, Conn. She was 71 years old.

Born May 22, 1918, in Medford, Mass., Sister Pauline entered the School Sisters of Notre Dame — to which she was a professional member for 50 years — from Immaculate Conception Parish in Malden, Mass.

Sister Pauline served as an elementary teacher in Maryland, New Jersey, New York and Massachusetts.

After teaching at St. Joseph's School in Garden City, N.Y., from 1941-56, she taught at Holy Redeemer from 1956-57. She then moved on to St. Leo's School in Irvington, N.J., where she taught until 1964.

In 1984, Sister Pauline moved to the SSND motherhouse in Wilton, Conn.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated in the SSND motherhouse chapel in Wilton on Jan. 16. Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Bethel, Conn.

Donations in memory of Sister Pauline may be made to the SSND Development Fund, 345 Belden Hill Rd., Wilton, Conn., 06897.
