

Aquinas holds Mission Bouts

ROCHESTER — Aquinas Institute staged its 58th annual Mission Bouts March 9, 1990, to raise funds for the mission activities of the Catholic Church.

This year, the event included 13 matches, all fought by Aquinas students. The winners were: featherweight Todd Flemming; welterweight Derek Kurth; lightweight Pete Montagliano; junior middleweight Art Briscoe; welterweight Rob Schuler; heavyweight Andy Speer; junior middleweight Nick Penna;

Super welterweight Dave Baldwin; junior welterweight Andy Affronti (also named Most Improved Boxer); lightweight Sam DeSalvo; light heavyweight Joe Bianchi (also named Fighter of the Night); and middleweight Dan Robinson (also tabbed the Most Coachable Boxer).

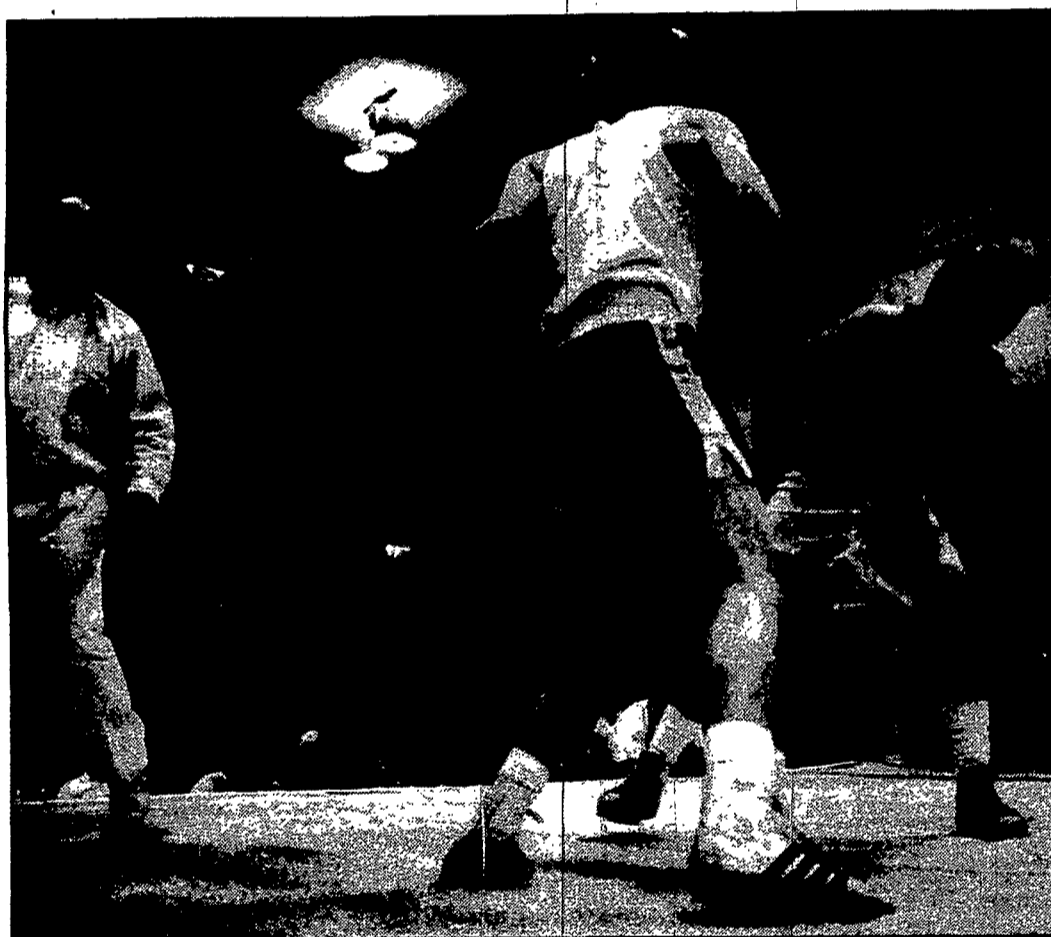

The Fight of the Night was the featherweight bout between Joe Inclema and Rich Lombardo, won by Inclema. Inclema also earned the Freshman Fighter of the Night Award.

Kings, Knights dominate wrestling all-star squad

ROCHESTER — Wrestlers from Bishop Kearney and McQuaid picked up where they left off during the regular season by completely dominating the City-Catholic League Wrestling All-Star team. Grapplers from the two schools grabbed 11 of the available 14 slots.

Kearney wrestlers Gracen Porrecca (98 pounds), Rick Spiker (105), Warren Jones (132), Joe Geraci (138), Jerry Lopez (145), and Dave Bell (215) were named to the team. Mark Vocci (91 pounds), Matt Kramer (119), Bryan Knassa (126), Jim Schnell (155), and Alton Turner (250) were named from McQuaid. Knassa, who won the sectional title in his weight class, was named wrestler of the year. Kearney Coach Vince Aalto, who guided the Kings to their first league title since 1981, was honored as coach of the year.

Nazareth's Garbinski named to all-star squad

Nazareth College's John Garbinski has been selected to the second team of the National Association of Basketball Coaches' East Region All-Star team.

A senior forward, Garbinski averaged 13.6 points and 5.2 rebounds for the Golden Flyers (20-7) during the 1989/90 season. The team's co-captain this past season, he finished his college career with 1,068 points, making him the sixth leading scorer in Nazareth College history.

Meal program seeks help

The Visiting Nurse Service of Rochester and Monroe County is seeking volunteers to help deliver meals to area residents who are elderly, frail or homebound.

Meals on Wheels programs on Prince Street, and in Greece, Henrietta and Irondequoit are in special need of additional help.
