

Parish asks Catholics to 'come home' to faith

ROCHESTER — St. Augustine's Church is currently inviting people who feel separated from the Catholic Church to give their reasons for leaving and to take another look at where they fit in the church.

The "Come Home" sessions will take place at the Thurston Road Knights of Columbus Building on April 1 and 8 at 1:30 p.m.

Call 716/328-2442 for information.

YOUNG BROKERS — The championship team from St. Agnes School, Avon, plans their next stock market move. The students won first place in the fall Gannett Newspaper Stock Market Contest.

RECOGNIZING ...

★Stephanie Collins and Joanne Alberti, students at St. Theodore's School who won first and second places, respectively, in the Village Green Art Contest.

★Ithaca resident and DeSales alumna Jeanne Mackin, whose first novel, "Frenchwoman," was published last December.

★Ed and Rosemary Shelly, chosen as parishioners of the year for 1989 at St. Augustine Parish's annual Thank You Party for parish volunteers.

★Nazareth College swim team co-captain Jennifer Board, who recently broke a four-year-old school record for the 500-yard freestyle.

★Very Rev. Dr. Stephen Upson, an assistant for 40 years at Rochester's Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church, who was elevated in January to Office of Archimandrite — the highest title, short of the rank of bishop, that a priest can attain in the Greek Orthodox Church.

★Matthew and Christian Di Paola, eighth-graders at Holy Cross School, who won first prize and earned $100 in an ice sculpture contest at the Charlotte Beach Winter Fest. Their sculpture, "Opus Comes to Charlotte," also won the youth division.

★Matthew Maruggi, religious studies teacher at Nazareth Academy, chosen by members of the Honor Society for an excellence in teaching award.

University president set to speak at All Saints gala

CORNING — Father Mathias F. Doyle, OFM, president of St. Bonaventure University, is slated to speak at the second annual All Saints Academy's Gala, Saturday, March 31, at the Corning Hilton Inn.

The evening includes a dinner, scheduled to begin at 6 p.m., followed by Father Doyle's keynote address and after-dinner dancing.

Funds from the gala will be used to support the academy. Last year's event grossed approximately $30,000.

Tickets for the event cost $50 per person. To purchase tickets or obtain more information, call the school at 607/936-9234, or Dan Goodman, 962-1141.

Parish census planned

ROCHESTER — More than 250 parishioners from St. Ambrose Church will attempt to contact all Catholics within the parish boundaries on Sunday, April 1, from 1-5 p.m.

Information gathered during the census will be used to determine the needs of the parish. Call 716/288-5000 for information.

You've reached your most significant milestone.

Now's the perfect time to put SBLI to work for you.

You've got reason to celebrate. You've worked hard all your life. Now you're going to have someone work hard for you: SBLI. By offering low cost SeniorLife* for people 55 and older that's very affordable and easy to buy, SBLI is a solid gold choice for your 'golden years' insurance. For only $6.25 a month (only $5.25 for each additional unit), men age 55-72, and women age 55-75, can be insured up to $17,500 for life, depending on age and sex. And... You're guaranteed acceptance. There's no medical exam or health questions. Your premium never goes up. Your insurance never goes down. Plus, your policy builds cash values.

For a brochure on low cost SBLI, return the coupon, stop at any branch of Rochester Community Savings Bank or call 258-4600. You're under no obligation and no one will visit you. But act now. Because with SBLI, the life of a Senior becomes the life of Riley!

R ROCHESTER COMMUNITY SAVINGS BANK

CC-3/29

Clip and Mail

I'm interested in SBLI's SeniorLife for people 55 and older. Please send me a brochure.

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ Zip _____

Mail to: Rochester Community Savings Bank/SBLI, 250 Midtown Plaza, Rochester, NY 14604

We give you more money for living

SBLI Fund, New York, NY, *Policy L-11. Limited death benefit during first 2 years.