

Aging series scheduled for churches in Brockport

BROCKPORT — Seven churches and religious communities, including Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church and the State University College at Brockport's Newman Community, are sponsoring a "Family Education Series on Aging," on consecutive Mondays from April 30-May 21 and June 4-11.

The program will take place at the Sweden Senior Center.

Each session, which runs from 7:30-9:30 p.m., is open to adults of all ages. The program will include such topics as how aging affects everybody, what direct services are available to older adults, nursing home and hospital care, as well as Alzheimer's disease and related disorders.

The series has been developed by the staff of the Mercy Center with the Aging, a project of the Sisters of Mercy of Rochester.

For information, call Irene Goodwin at 716/637-8490.

Bus planned for life rally

ROCHESTER — Corpus Christi Parish will sponsor a bus to the national Rally for Life on April 28 in Washington, D.C.

The bus will leave the church parking lot at 11 p.m. April 27, and return at midnight on April 28.

Cost is $45 per person. Call Jane Ballard at 716/288-2983.

PANTHERS WIN TITLE — The CYO basketball team at St. Patrick's of Seneca Falls won the Rochester Diocesan Boys' Basketball League March 11 in a 61-56 victory over Catholic Youth of Pittsford. St. Pat's advanced to the title game at DeSales High School with a 52-31 win over St. Lawrence of Rochester in the first round, and by trouncing St. Mary Our Mother of East Rochester, 70-52.

RECOGNIZING ...

★ Micah Smyth, an eighth-grader at St. Ambrose School, Rochester, who won the ninth annual Bishop Matthew H. Clark Oratorical Competition in March. Finishing second was Rebecca Clare of St. Pius X School. Third was Robert Murphy of St. John the Evangelist School, Greece.

★ McQuaid alumnus and track standout Brad Summer, a freshman at Villanova University in Philadelphia, who earned his first NCAA title at Indianapolis in March, competing in the 3,200-meter relay.

★ DeSales Regional High School juniors Jim McDermott and Ed Marsteiner, selected by the school's faculty and staff members to receive the Spirit Award for March. Both take part in DeSales sports as well as the varsity club and National Honor Society. McDermott also tutors freshmen in history, and Marsteiner serves on student council.

★ Brother Martin D. McCullagh, CFC, a former teacher at Rochester's Bishop Kearney High School, who celebrates his golden jubilee in April. Brother McCullagh is currently assistant director of undergraduate admissions at Iona College in New Rochelle, N.Y.

★ Doris Schnippert, an art teacher at Notre Dame High School in Elmira, awarded a National Endowment of the Humanities Grant to study Florentine Renaissance humanism at Ohio Wesleyan University and in Florence, Italy, for a month and a half this summer.

★ Christopher Russo, a student from St. Theodore's School, who competed in the state finals of the 1990 National Geography Bee April 2 in Tarrytown, N.Y.

Parish marks 125th year

ROCHESTER — Holy Family Church is commemorating its 125th anniversary at a banquet on Sunday, May 27, at the Party House on Beahan Road.

Tickets cost $15 per person and are available until May 13. Reservations may be made for the roast beef or chicken dinner by sending a check to: Holy Family Rectory, 415 Ames St., Rochester, N.Y., 14611.

For information, call Margaret, 716/254-9238; Jean, 436-5986; or Lou, 247-0993.

PORTRAIT DONATED — Charles Dispenza (left) and Walter Snyder hold a picture of Father Herbert Sturmer, pastor of Cohocton's St. Pius V Church from 1951-67. The photo was a gift of Hornell's Jack Lisi, and will hang in the parish hall.

Medjugorje pilgrimage set

PENFIELD — Deacon Al Bergeron of Our Lady Queen of Peace Church will be spiritual director of a pilgrimage to Medjugorje, Yugoslavia, from May 8-17.

Deacon Bergeron will be accompanied by his wife, Catherine, and Father Leo Klem, CSB, of St. John Fisher College. For information, call 716/671-3777.

A sign of
RESURRECTION

At Easter, ensure that the "greatest story ever told" -- the story of Jesus' death and Resurrection -- is told and retold by those serving in the local churches of the Missions. Support the sharing of that "good news" by men like Father DeSouza (above). He lives and serves among the very poor of India. Support his "telling" of the good news of the Resurrection through the Propagation of the Faith.

The Society for
THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH
...all of us committed to the worldwide mission of Jesus
Fr. Robert C. Bradler
1150 Buffalo Rd., Dept. C
Rochester, NY 14624

One month's support for a mission priest is $100. Enclosed is my offering for use where it is most needed by those who tell, day after day, "the greatest story ever told":
 $10 $25 $50 $75 $100 Other $ _____

Name _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____ Zip _____

I want to be a monthly donor to the Missions!
Your gift is tax deductible! #344 4/19/90

The Apartment Community
OUR LADY OF THE SNOWS

Any way you look at it!

A SPECTACULAR VIEW OF RETIREMENT LIVING

The Apartment Community at Our Lady of the Snows offers some of life's greatest joys... friends, convenience, beautiful surroundings, security and much more! Our chapel, for example, has all the features of a parish church including daily Mass and is always open for private worship. Discover everything you want in a lifestyle - all in one place. Call for details on membership plans with monthly fees starting in the $800's!

- Beautiful Grounds
- Elegant Dining
- Maid Service
- Health Services
- Weekly Transportation
- Utilities and Maintenance

For more information CALL TODAY! 618 / 397-6700

Send Coupon to:
Rosalee Cavataio
Apartment Community
9500 W. Hwy. 15
Belleville, IL 62223-1093
OPEN TO ALL FAITHS!

Yes, send me a free, no obligation brochure about the Apartment Community of Our Lady of the Snows.

Name _____
Address _____
City / State _____
Zip _____ Phone _____ CATHCO4-90