

BK grads honor late classmate

Bishop Dennis W. Hickey was the speaker for Bishop Kearney High School's 25th commencement ceremony Sunday, June 3, at the Eastman Theatre. Bishop Kearney graduated 221 seniors during the event.

Valedictorian was Anne Stockslader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Stockslader of LeGrain Road, Rochester. Anne plans to enroll at Elmira College, where she will pursue a major in mathematics and certification to teach in secondary education.

David Bartnicki, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bartnicki of Farmington Road, Rochester, was Kearney's salutatorian. David plans to study political science at the University of Scranton.

As they gathered for graduation, Kearney's Class of 1990 fondly remembered Paul M. Blake IV — who died Nov. 1, 1989, following an automobile accident — by establishing the Paul M. Blake IV Memorial Endowment Scholarship.

At the graduation, Paul's parents received three awards in their son's name: the Bishop Kearney Academic Excellence Award, a New York State Special Regents' Scholarship Certificate, and a Presidential Academic Fitness Achievement Award. Ranked fourth in his class, Paul also would have received a New York State Regents' Scholarship.
