

Georgetown coach to speak

DESALES
HIGH SCHOOL

Jody Lavin, Patrick, assistant women's basketball coach at Georgetown University and member of DeSales Class of 1978, will return to her alma mater Sunday, June 24, to address the school's 75th graduating class.

Thirty-two seniors will receive diplomas during the ceremony, which is scheduled to begin at 2 p.m. in the DeSales gymnasium-auditorium.

Valedictorian for the Class of 1990 is Paul J. Hezel, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Joseph Hezel of East Main Street, Clifton Springs. Paul intends to pursue study in the liberal arts next fall at Boston College.

Lauren A. Cosentino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cosentino Jr. of North Genesee Street, Geneva, is class salutatorian. Lauren plans to attend Alfred University in the fall.

... think July classes at Bryant & Stratton

Why July?

- Start your career sooner—Because you will graduate at least six months sooner, you will find less competition for jobs!
- Personal attention—Excellent student/teacher ratios.
- Skill proficiency—By beginning in July, your previously learned skills will be at their top.
- Lifetime Job Placement for Graduates—Last year 96% of our graduates who requested placement assistance were employed.
- 3 day weekends—Attend classes just 4 days a week!

Day and Evening classes begin July 2nd.
