Kearney's Brother Hannon to profess his final vows

NEW ROCHELLE

— Brother Paul M. Hannon, CFC, a member of the faculty at Bishop Kearney High School, will profess his final vows in the Congregation of Christian Brothers during an 11 a.m. liturgy of final profession at Holy Family Church, New Rochelle, on Saturday, June 23. A luncheon reception will follow at Iona College.

The son of Paul and Evelyn Hannon, Brother Hannon is a native of Boston. He attended St. Theresa's School and Catholic Memorial High School, West Roxbury, Mass., graduating from Catholic Memorial in 1971. In 1975, he graduated from Boston College with a bachelor's degree in management. After working in private industry for six years, Brother Hannon entered the Congregation of Christian Brothers in 1981.

He was assigned to the former Power Memorial Academy, New York City, for one year before serving at All Hallows High School in the Bronx for five years. During his years at All Hallows, Brother Hannon served as athletic director and as a member of the board of directors of the Catholic High School Athletic Association, and taught religion at Riker's Island Correctional Facility for two years.

In 1988, he was transferred to Bishop Kearney High School, where he teaches business law and religion. He currently serves as assistant athletic director at Kearney and as director of the Kearney Invitational Basketball Classic.

He recently completed a master's degree in educational administration from Manhattan College in New York City.

Two other Christian Brothers, Paul N. Bianchi, and Stephen P. Norton, will also profess final vows on June 23.

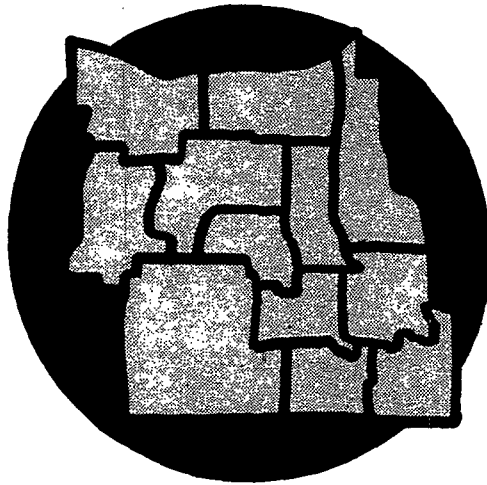

Apostolate to host service in honor of Mary June 25

CANANDAIGUA — The Queen of Peace Apostolate will host its third-annual prayer service in honor of Mary at St. Mary's Church, 95 N. Main St. on Monday, June 25.

Confessions will be heard beginning at 7 p.m., followed by a rosary and a litany of Our Lady. A Mass at 8 p.m. will be followed by exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and a healing service. The main celebrant for the Mass will be Father Albert J. Shamon.

People of all faiths are welcome to attend the evening service. Refreshments will be served in the school gym immediately following Mass.

Call 716/394-0604 for information.

Mt. Saviour Benedictine to be ordained a deacon

PINE CITY — Brother Nathan Munsch, a monk at Mount Saviour Monastery, will be ordained to the diaconate on Saturday, June 23, at 11 a.m. in the monastery chapel.

Bishop Matthew H. Clark has delegated Bishop William G. Connare, retired bishop of Greensburg, Pa., and a longtime friend of the Munsch family, to be the ordaining prelate.

A native of Pittsburgh, Brother Nathan received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Notre Dame and a master's degree in classical languages from Duquesne University. He will continue his studies for the priesthood at Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

Noted author Father Green to speak at cluster Masses

Author, noted spiritual director and Rochester native Father Thomas H. Green, SJ, is scheduled to speak at weekend Masses of the Catholic Community of the Blessed Trinity June 23-24.

A graduate of Holy Rosary School and Aquinas Institute, Father Green earned a master's degree in physics from Fordham University and a doctorate in philosophy of science from Notre Dame University. He also completed a postdoctoral year in southeastern Asian studies at Cornell.

At present, he is on sabbatical from posts as spiritual director of San José National Diocesan Seminary and professor of philosophy and theology at Ateneo de Manila University in Manila, Philippines.
