

Two sisters saying goodbye to Tier parish

WATKINS GLEN — The Religious Teachers Filippini announced in May the transfers of Sister Mary Garozzo and Sister Rose Crivelli from St. Mary's of the Lake Church. The move becomes effective August 26.

Sister Garozzo will move to the Motherhouse of the Community Villa Walsh in Morristown, N.J., and Sister Crivelli will join St. Anthony's Parish, Watertown, N.Y.

Since arriving at St. Mary's of the Lake in August, 1974, Sister Garozzo worked hand-in-hand with the parish community in many capacities. In addition to serving as the coordinator of religious education and superior of the convent, she assisted children of all ages at the parish.

A close friend of the sick, poor and home-bound, Sister Garozzo also taught adult catechumens and aided in the continuing sacramental education of parents whose children were soon to be baptized.

Possessing a strong devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Sister Garozzo — along with Father Gerald O'Connor — founded the Mary Assumed into Heaven Praesidium of the Legion of Mary in 1980. Bishop Matthew H. Clark also appointed her the spiritual director of the Southern Tier Curia, an office that serves all Legion of Mary groups in the area.

Sister Crivelli has devoted herself to St. Mary's for 12 years. Having previously served the parish from 1947-51, she returned to the community in 1982. Sister Crivelli has taught religion to children at both St. Mary's and St. Benedict's churches. An accomplished musician, she was the parish organist during her years at the Tier church.

Along with former pastor Father Benedict Ehman, Sister Crivelli helped introduce congregational singing to St. Mary's. In addition, she directed the jubilee choir on the 50th anniversary of her order's arrival to the parish. Currently, she directs the Resurrection Choir, which sings during St. Mary's funeral liturgies.

Like Sister Garozzo, Sister Crivelli's ministry extended beyond the parish bound-
