

Sister Derby to profess first vows as Mercy sister

ROCHESTER — Sister Connie Derby, 33, will make the profession of her first vows as a Sister of Mercy during a prayer service on Wednesday, Aug. 29, at 7:30 p.m. in the Mercy motherhouse chapel, 1437 Blossom Road.

Sister Derby currently is the bookkeeper in the Diocesan Missions Office at the Pastoral Center, 1150 Buffalo Rd.

The daughter of William and Mary Derby of Geneseo, she graduated from Geneseo Central School in 1975 before receiving a bachelor of arts degree from the State University of New York College at Fredonia in 1979, and a master's degree in library and information science from SUNY at Albany in 1981.

Sister Derby entered the Mercy congregation on Aug. 29, 1985.

Before and after entering the order, she was an elementary-school librarian in Elmira. Since her entrance into the Sisters of Mercy, Sister Derby has worked in various ministries, including the congregation's motherhouse infirmary and Camp Maplewood in Elmira. In addition, she has assisted volunteers at Mt. Carmel Parish's soup kitchen and clothing room.

As the motif for her profession invitation, Sister Derby chose the following lines from Scripture: "See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains" (The Letter of James, 5:7).

Rochester man among Jesuits professing vows

SYRACUSE — Daniel Cardinali of St. Thomas More Parish will be among five Jesuit novices professing vows in the Shanahan Chapel at LeMoyne College this Saturday, Aug. 18.

The son of Dante and Jean Cardinali of Rochester, he is a graduate of McQuaid Jesuit High School and Georgetown University. In Syracuse, the 25-year-old Cardinali worked as a chaplain at Upstate Medical Center.

While serving as a novice, he studied Spanish in the Dominican Republic; worked as a nurses' aide at Calvary Hospital in the Bronx; and spent 11 weeks serving as a counselor for Central American refugees at Transfiguration Church in Brooklyn.

Last summer, Cardinali served as a teacher in the Higher Achievement Program at St. Peter's Prep in Jersey City, and this summer he is working with refugees in Mexico City.

Beginning in September, the Rochester native will return to school to study philosophy at Fordham University in the Bronx.
