

Parish to mark 50th year with renewal week, dinner

GATES — St. Helen's Parish will conclude the celebration of its 50th anniversary with a "Spiritual Renewal Week" from Sunday, Sept. 23 to Saturday, Sept. 29. The week's events will be led by members of The Trinity Ministries Center. On Sept. 29, a dinner/dance will take place at the Party House on Beahan Road. All former and current parishioners are invited. Tickets for the dinner are $12.50, and can be purchased before Sept. 22. For information, call Nancy or Fred Brown, 716/247-7843, or the parish office, 235-1210.

Magazine drive begins at St. Louis in Pittsford

PITTSFORD — St. Louis School is sponsoring its annual magazine drive through Sept. 26. Proceeds will be used to purchase equipment and offset general operating costs for the school. Those interested in ordering or renewing a magazine subscription through a student should call the school, 716/586-5200, for information.

Bible study group set to hold initial meeting

AUBURN — The Scripture study and video program at St. Francis of Assisi Church has scheduled its first meeting for Wednesday, Sept. 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the rectory meeting room. The program this year will concentrate on the Gospel According to St. Matthew for Cycle A. For information, call Jack Wilson, 315/252-7593.

"I lost 80 lbs. with Nutri/System. I looked so good, 15 of my friends signed up."

"They say actions speak louder than words. That's certainly true in my case. When my friends at work saw how I looked after I went to Nutri/System, they signed up, too. I felt good about that. I also feel good about the fact that I've been able to keep the weight off for over a year now. My friends can't wait to feel as great as I do. And I'm loving it."
