

Reunion to honor former parishioners of St. Lucy's

ROCHESTER — Former parishioners of St. Lucy's Church, which closed in 1970, are invited to a reunion dinner at the Mapledale Party House on Sunday, Oct. 28, at 3 p.m.

The parish would have marked its 78th anniversary this year.

The reunion committee will honor the late V.J. "Jiggs" Chiavaroli, a parishioner who once served as Republican commissioner for Monroe County. Along with Chiavaroli, Father James O'Connell, an assistant pastor from 1940-52, and Sister Margaret Louise Konsich, who spent from 1937-39 and 1945-51 at St. Lucy's, will also be honored.

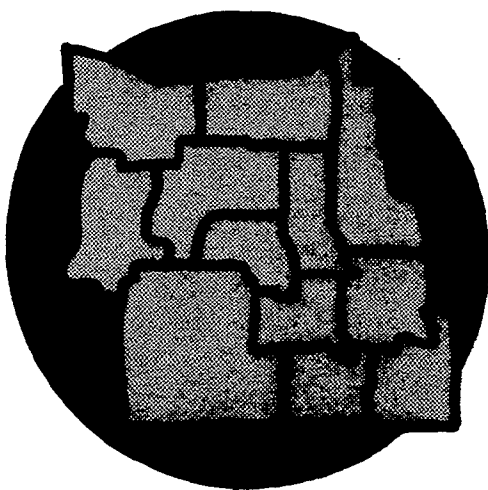

Four former pastors and assistants, and 10 Sisters of St. Joseph will also attend the event, which costs $25 a ticket. Call Joe Marsocci, 716/377-2969, or Chuck Schiano at 621-1874 for more information.

Novena to St. Jude set for church in Rochester

ROCHESTER — Father Bonaventure Stefun, OFM Cap., will celebrate the sacrament of the anointing of the sick and a novena to St. Jude — the patron of hopeless cases and impossible causes — at St. Jude's Church from Oct. 20-28.

The nine-day service will consist of a daily Mass and novena prayers from 9 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Bishop Dennis W. Hickey will celebrate the Mass of Solemn Closing on Oct. 28. The Mass will be followed by a coffee hour in the parish hall.

To obtain a novena booklet, shut-ins may write: St. Jude's Church, 4100 Lyell Road, Rochester, N.Y. 14606. The church and hall are handicapped-accessible.

Parish slates dedication

CANANDAIGUA — St. Mary's Church will host the dedication and blessing of its new pipe organ during the 11:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday, Oct. 21.

Susan Matteson will perform a dedication recital at 2 p.m., featuring the works of Bach, Mendelssohn, Alain and Brahms. A reception will take place in the school hall following the recital.

The organ is made up of parts from the church's original pipe organ, including some of its German-made pipes.

The recital is open to the public.

Benefit dinner scheduled for Blessed Trinity School

AUBURN — The annual benefit dinner for Blessed Trinity School is slated for 6:30 p.m. on Oct. 20 at the Springside Inn, West Lake Road.

Cost for the dinner is $50 per person. All proceeds will go to the school.

School alumni are welcome to attend. They are also requested to contact the school to provide information for an alumni directory.

For information, call the school office, 315/253-4701.

A new beginning

Wearing a hard hat, Bishop Joseph L. Hogan officiated at the Sept. 30 groundbreaking celebration for the new St. Catherine of Siena Church, Mendon. St. Catherine's pastor, Father Charles Latus (center), expects the church to open in about a year.

As a fundraiser for the church construction project, the parish's Monsignor Schnacky Community Players will present the cabaret show 'Magic! Music! Memories!' in dinner-theater performances scheduled for the weekends of Oct. 26-27 and Nov. 2-3.

Each show will begin with cash bar and dinner at 7 p.m., followed by the performance at 8 p.m. Tickets are $15 and may be obtained by calling Elaine Sykes, 716/924-4514.
