IV game against Windsor on Oct. 20.

Aquinas eliminated the costly mistakes it made against Edison a week earlier by trouncing host Wilson, 35-8, in a City-Catholic League game Oct. 13.

After Jim Fischer dominated for Aquinas offensively in the first quarter, Matt Piccone stole the show for the rest of the game.

Fischer's first touchdown came in the opening quarter on a one-yard run. Mike Sloan secured the extra point for a 7-0 margin.

Fischer increased the margin to 13-0 when he burst through on a 17-yard run later in the quarter. Sloan added the conversion to up the score to 14-0.

Then it was "Piccone Power" all the way. The AQ back scampered into the end zone from the one-yard line. Sloan's kick ballooned the lead to 21-0 at the half.

The Wildcats scored on the opening kickoff of the second half when Luis Rodriguez rumbled 85 yards for a touchdown. Rodriguez ran for the conversion, giving Wilson their only points of the game, 21-8.

Later in the third quarter, Piccone couldn't be stopped as he scored on a 44-yard run and a 56-yard run. Sloan kicked both PATs to provide the final margin of 35-8.

Aquinas compiled 334 yards in total offense, while only yielding 85 to Wilson. Piccone finished with 146 yards on 12 carries. Fischer had 17 carries and 117 yards. Sloan was perfect (5-for-5) on extra points, and Gary Johnson and Phil Gruttadauria each had seven tackles.

Aquinas will travel to Marshall Oct. 20 to take on the Jurists.

McQuaid (3-2) handed Bishop Kearney its fifth consecutive loss of the season with a 35-0 drubbing in a City-Catholic League game Oct. 13.

With four of their starting players injured — including Rene Ingoglia, who is still nursing a bad knee — the Kings limped through the league battle.

McQuaid's Kullen Dickinsen started the scoring in the first quarter when he gathered in a four-yard touchdown pass from Christian Klein. Rob Warren kicked the extra point to give the Knights a 7-0 lead.

A fired-up Dickinsen plowed 35 yards for a score in the second quarter. Warren added the extra-point to increase the margin to 14-0.

Later in the quarter, Rich Rund made a key interception and returned the ball 35 yards down to the 10-yard line. Moments later, Rund was on the receiving end of a four-yard TD pass from Klein. Warren tallied another point on the kick, propelling the Knights to a 21-0 lead at intermission.

Unfortunately for the Kings, McQuaid was not finished. Dickinsen rumbled 65 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter, and Warren's leg added the point-after to make the score 28-0.

The Knights scored their final touchdown in the fourth quarter when Jason Milne raced 53 yards to the end zone. Warren kicked his fifth extra-point to round out the scoring.

Dickinsen finished with 208 yards rushing. Warren was 5-for-5 on extra points.

McQuaid Coach Tom Sprague commended Kearney for its determined play, and in the end it was the Knights' depth that won the game.

Bishop Kearney Coach Nick Teta said he was encouraged by his team's play at the beginning of the game, but that his players couldn't fill the void created by the injured Kings.

"They (the Knights) were physically stronger than we were," Teta said. "It was hard for our kids to handle their physical size."

The Knights will try to maintain their momentum when they host Wilson this Saturday, Oct. 20. Meanwhile, Bishop Kearney will try to post its first win against host Franklin.

soccer. The Crusaders have the top three scorers in the Sullivan Trail Conference — Jenny Fagan (23 goals, 6 assists), Melanie Crisco (13 goals, 12 assists), and Claire Ramich (13 goals, 8 assists).

The Crusaders played to a 4-4 tie after two overtimes at Hammondsport on Oct. 13.

After a goal by the Lakers, Ramich retaliated to tie the game, 1-1, at the half. Crisco fired home two goals in the second half, but her scores were matched by the Lakers and the game ended, 3-3, after regulation play.

In the second-overtime session, Kristina Brunner put ND ahead with a brilliant goal to give ND a 4-3 advantage. But Hammondsport tied the game on a penalty kick with three minutes left in the game.

ND's Oct. 11 match against Horseheads was cancelled due to poor field conditions. The game was rescheduled for Oct. 19.

Notre Dame had another show of force when the Crusaders wiped out Southside High School, 8-1, on Oct. 9. Notre Dame scored seven of its goals in the first 30 minutes of play.

In other recent action, ND fell to visiting Elmira Free Academy, 4-3, on Oct. 4.

EFA gained a 2-0 lead at the break, but Fagan found the back of the net twice in the second half to knot things at 2-2. Brunner also scored for ND in the second half, but EFA scored the winning goal off of a penalty kick with 12 minutes left to play.

The Crusaders destroyed Corning, 8-1, on Oct. 2, when they again scored seven goals in the first half.

Ramich fired in three goals, while Fagan and Brunner both scored twice in the first half. In the second half, Kirsten Campanelli scored the final ND goal. Crisco had four assists in the game.

Geneva DeSales (0-11) still has not won a game.

The Saints' Oct. 12 match against Harley-Allendale Columbia was postponed due to rain and rescheduled for Oct. 15. The Bloomfield match on Oct. 4 was also cancelled.

Naples drubbed the Saints on Oct. 10, 8-0; South Seneca nipped DeSales, 1-0, on Oct. 6; and Red Jacket crushed the Saints, 7-0, on Oct. 2.

With only four upperclassmen on the roster, DeSales' Coach Greg Lavin believes the Saints are having a tough time getting momentum. DeSales should be much stronger next year, Lavin said.
