

Father Vincent E. LeFrois, 74; served in number of parishes

Father Vincent E. LeFrois, the former pastor of several parishes in the Rochester diocese, died in St. Ann's Home/The Heritage on Saturday, Oct. 27, 1990 after a long illness. He was 74 years old.

A Mass of Christ the High Priest was celebrated at St. Thomas the Apostle Church on Tuesday, Oct. 30, with Mass of Christian Burial on Oct. 31. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Born in Webster to George and Vera LeFrois, Father LeFrois attended Holy Trinity School, Holy Rosary School and Aquinas Institute. He later graduated from St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's seminaries before he was ordained to the priesthood at Sacred Heart Cathedral on June 7, 1941.

Father LeFrois taught religion at St. Anselm's Abbey, Manchester, N.H. for one year following his ordination. He later returned to the Rochester diocese, serving as an associate pastor in several parishes until his appointment as pastor of Holy Angels Church, Nunda, and the former Holy Name Church, Groveland, on June 7, 1964.

He became pastor of St. Mary of the Hills Church, Honeoye, and the former St. Michael's Church, Livonia Center, from 1967 until his retirement in 1987.

Classmates of Father LeFrois said he was an extremely quiet and reserved person. He also had a special ability to reach out to the sick.

Father LeFrois is survived by his sister, Rita Conrad, three priest brothers: Fathers Joseph LeFrois, SSI, Christian LeFrois, OSB, and Monsignor Marvin LeFrois; six nephews; one niece; as well as 14 grandnieces and grandnephews.

Sister Mary Janita Cibula, 94; schoolteacher

Sister Mary Janita Cibula, SSND, a former teacher at Rochester's Holy Redeemer and St. Boniface schools, died Tuesday, Oct. 2, 1990, at the Lourdes Health Care Center in Wilton, Conn. She was 94 years old.

A Mass of Christian Burial for Sister Janita was celebrated Oct. 5 in the School Sisters of Notre Dame motherhouse chapel in Wilton. Interment was in St. Mary Cemetery in Bethel, Conn.

Born in Vrbove, Nitra, Slovakia, on March 1, 1896, Sister Janita entered the congregation from her home parish of Our Lady of Perpetual Help in New York City. She was a professed member of the order for 72 years. During her ministry, she served as an elementary school teacher throughout the Northeast and Maryland.

She began her teaching career at St. Mary School in East Islip, Long Island, in 1917. Sister Janita taught at Holy Redeemer School from 1936-37 before leaving for Holy Family Parish in Brooklyn. She later taught at St. Boniface School from 1956-60.

Sister Janita taught at St. Rita School in Brooklyn from 1960 until her retirement in 1982. She had lived at the SSND motherhouse since 1982.

Donations in memory of Sister Mary Janita Cibula may be made to the SSND Development Fund, 345 Belden Hill Road, Wilton, Conn., 06897.

The moral vision of Common Ground is where God is calling us all as Church to be.

Fr. Tony Mugavero, Pro-Life Activist

Common Ground doesn't get lost in the intricacies of the arguments justifying abortion and war. Because for the Christian it comes down to one question: Are we allowed to kill?

Fr. Jim Callan, Corpus Christi Church

For me as a woman, Common Ground is the only group in Upstate New York that has the boldness to say "NO" to the oppression of any group.
