

Parish seeks volunteer to help woman in need

COHOCTON — An 80-year-old woman living within St. Pius V Parish needs someone to do odd jobs around her home to help her get the house ready for winter.

She is also in need of a ride to Canandaigua to visit her 87-year-old husband who is in the hospital. Those wanting to help should call 716/384-5500 for information.

'How-to' series slated

HENRIETTA — Good Shepherd Church is offering a three-part series of how-to workshops, from 7:30-9 p.m., beginning Nov. 13 with a session on computers in room 105 of the parish school. Finances will be the subject of the Nov. 27 session in room 114, and gardening will be covered on Nov. 27 in room 115.

For information, call Gloria Ulterino at 716/334-3518, Mondays-Fridays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

MAGIC MARATHON — Students of St. John the Evangelist School in Spencerport raised $9,000 during their annual St. John Magic Marathon on Oct. 5. Students in grades 4-8 walked through the village during one of the school's major fundraisers.

Parish slates forty hours for three days in November

AUBURN — Father Bernard Finnerty, OFM, Cap., is scheduled to deliver the homilies at St. Francis of Assisi Parish's forty hours devotions Nov. 11-13.

Devotions will begin during the 11:30 a.m. Mass on Nov. 11. The evening service, scheduled to begin at 7:45 p.m., will include rosary, prayers, benediction and exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

Services on Nov. 12-13 will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Confessions will be heard after the services.

Parish plans alumni Mass, dinner to benefit church

ROCHESTER — St. Bridget's Parish is holding an alumni Mass and dinner for former and current parishioners on Sunday, Nov. 18, from noon to 4:30 p.m. The day begins with a Mass at the church, 175 St. Bridget's Dr., followed by dinner at the Mapledale Party House.

The 136-year-old parish also hopes to raise additional funds for the restoration of its church building. Cost of the dinner is $25 per person. For information, call the parish office, 716/454-4236.

Students sell magazines to defray school expenses

ROCHESTER — Students at St. Theodore's School grossed more than $23,000 in magazine sales since they began selling subscriptions in order to defray school expenses.

Nearly 90 percent of the students have sold more than 1,700 subscriptions, according to Principal Sister Elaine Englert, SSJ.

The drive's top five sellers were Charles Vitale (36 orders), Michael Goodman (25 orders), Lisa Colon (22 orders), Faust McManus (20 orders), and Gregory Wertz (20 orders). In winning the Top Family Award, Joshua, Cathy and Teddy Brown sold 42 orders altogether.

"The spirit of the drive was great," Sister Englert said.
