

Henrietta school planning evening for parents, kids

HENRIETTA — Good Shepherd School, 3288 E. Henrietta Road, will host an open house on Jan. 23, at 7:30 p.m. for parents and students interested in its program for grades 4-8. The school is part of the Rush-Henrietta Catholic School System, which also encompasses Guardian Angels' pre-K-3 program.

Highlights of the open house will be a tour of the school, a computer demonstration and a student art exhibit. The school offers accelerated math and Spanish classes for junior high pupils. Music lessons and ski club memberships are also available.

For information on Good Shepherd, call 716/334-5100. For information on Guardian Angels, call 334-3770.

Hospital breaks ground on new site for office

CHILI — Last month St. Mary's Hospital, 89 Genesee St., broke ground on a new location for the North Chili Family Health Associates at 7 College Greene Drive, across from Roberts Wesleyan College.

Construction on the new office is scheduled for completion in May. Until the site opens, Family Health Associates will continue to operate at its current location on 3161 N. Union St.

The new, 6,500-square foot office will offer services in internal medicine and pediatrics.

Meeting, open house set for St. John of Rochester

FAIRPORT — St. John of Rochester School, 10 Wickford Way, will host an informational meeting and open house on Wednesday, Jan. 23, at 7:30 p.m. for parents interested in enrolling their children for next fall.

Parents will be able to speak with the principal, visit classrooms and discuss the school's curriculum. Registration will begin Feb. 25. For information, call 716/248-8836.

Mission Week scheduled for St. Patrick's in Elmira

ELMIRA — St. Patrick's Church, 604 Park Place, will host a Bible Mission Week from Feb. 24-March 3.

Guide for the week will be Father John Burke, OP, director of the National Institute for the Word of God, who will focus parishioners' attention on the Word of God as found in Scripture.

Each evening's program will begin with a liturgy from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., followed by coffee and discussion from 8:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Among the topics to be presented are "Joy in the Good News," "Salvation by Faith," "Jesus Reigns: We Shall Rise Again," and "Apostleship to the World."

While the emphasis of this weeklong celebration will be the evening liturgies, other events will also take place during the day.

For additional information, parishioners may refer to the parish bulletin, or call 607/733-6661.

School to host open houses for families Jan. 24 and 29

ROCHESTER — Holy Cross School, 4488 Lake Ave., will host an informational night on Thursday, Jan. 24, at 7 p.m. for families considering enrolling children in the school next fall.

Applications will be available for grades K-8. A formal presentation will be followed by a question/answer session with teachers and school parents. Babysitting and refreshments will be provided.

The school will also host an open house on Tuesday, Jan. 29, from 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. For information, call 716-663-6533.

Parish to sponsor event featuring service groups

ROCHESTER — Parishioners at Our Lady Queen of Peace will have a chance to learn about the church's various ministries and groups following Masses on the weekend of Jan. 19-20.

Entitled "The Magic of Queen of Peace: Come Get to Know Us," the weekend will enable parishioners who want to learn about the church's 17 service groups to visit informational display booths set up in the parish's school rooms.

In keeping with the weekend's theme, a magician will be on hand to entertain children of the parish.

Groups that will most likely set up informational booths include the parish council, eucharistic ministers, social outreach volunteers and the Rosary/Altar Society.

For information, call Deacon Al Bergeron at 716/671-3777.
