

TROPHY WINNER — Charles Bush, a sixth-grader at Seton Catholic School in Brighton, holds the first-place trophy after winning the invitational spelling bee at Rochester's St. Boniface School on Jan. 28.

St. Mary Our Mother Church in Horseheads plans Lenten mission

HORSEHEADS — St. Mary Our Mother Parish, 816 W. Broad St., will host a Lenten Mission entitled "Seeking the Sacred Within, Without and In Between" from Feb. 24 through March 1.

Each evening's program will take place from 7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. The following is a list of topics, presenters and dates for the mission:

- "Seeing the Process and Place of Prayer With Us;" Father Edward Golden; Sunday, Feb. 24.

- "Discovering the Power, Witness and Dialogue of Prayer;" Anthony T. Barbaro; on Monday, Feb. 25.

- "Men in Prayer; Women in Prayer; Prayer Between Husband and Wife;" Deacon Dan Hurley and Joan Hurley; Tuesday, Feb. 26.

- "Intimacy in Relationships: A Bridge

Toward Wholeness;" Sharon and Ted O'Toole; Wednesday, Feb. 27.

- "Are Feelings, Emotions and Dreams Valid Avenues to the Sacred?" Joyce Trifoso; Thursday, Feb. 28.

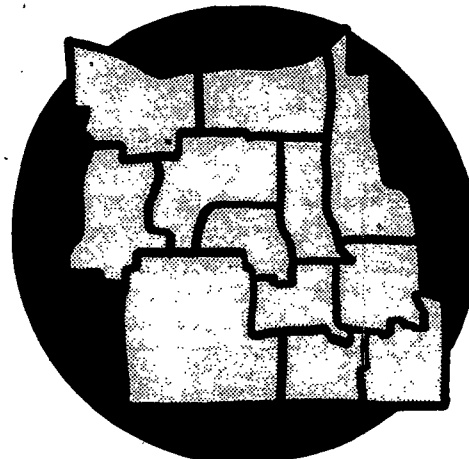

- "Joining the Sacred With the Active: What Do We Do for the Least of Our Brothers, and Who Are They?" Kathy Dubel; Friday, March 1.

Call 607/739-3817 for information.

School offers registration for interested students

ROCHESTER — Holy Cross School, 4488 Lake Ave., is currently accepting applications for the 1991-92 school year. Screening for students applying to attend the school — which offers grades 1-8 — will take place on Feb. 14 and 26. For information, call (716)663-6533.

Catholic students who have not received the sacraments of baptism, the Eucharist or penance must do so prior to registration through the school's Religious Education Office. For information, call 663-8133.

Seton girls take home title

WATERLOO — The girls' basketball team at Seton Junior High in Rochester took home top honors at the St. Mary's Holiday Tournament last December.

Seton advanced to the championship game after beating St. Michael's of Penn Yan in overtime during the first round, and holding off St. Patrick's of Seneca Falls in a second-round match.

The Seton girls won the holiday title by upsetting two-time defending champion and tourney host St. Mary's.

Gates parish to offer series targeted at lapsed Catholics

GATES — Beginning Monday, Feb. 18 and continuing each Monday evening through March 18, Holy Ghost Parish, 220 Coldwater Road, will present "Journeying Home," a five-part series for inactive or semi-active Catholics who wish to take another look at their Catholic heritage.

Whatever the reason for withdrawing from the church — whether caused by hurtful experiences, misinformation or gradual disinterest — the program is designed to explore feelings and concerns in a non-threatening environment. In addition, the series will explore changes in attitudes and practices in the post-Vatican II church.

All sessions begin at 7:30 p.m. in the school hall. For information, call the rectory at (716)247-3535.

Recognizing ...

★ students at St. John the Evangelist School, Spencerport, who put together food baskets for a needy family during the holiday season.

★ Brendan Bayer, Kurt Mangold, Matt Osborn, Patrick O'Neill, Jim Stephany and Matt Wilson of the Children's Choir at Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Brighton, who were selected to attend a workshop in Buffalo last November at St. Paul Episcopal Cathedral.

★ students of St. Josaphat's Ukrainian Catholic School, Irondequoit, whose "Hop-A-Thon" raised $808.35 to benefit the Newark, New Jersey-based Children of Chernobyl, a not-for-profit, worldwide organization established to fund medical treatment for the children who became victims of the Chernobyl nuclear disaster.

★ fourth-graders at St. Pius X School, Rochester, who donated clothing and money for food to Ss. Peter and Paul's Soup Kitchen at Thanksgiving, and who earned extra money to purchase gifts for pre-school children at Ss. Peter and Paul's Day Care Center at Christmas. Matt Rizzo, a graduate of St. Pius X, delivered the clothing to the soup kitchen.

★ Our Lady of Mercy High School sophomore Erica Eichelberger, who placed fifth in the regional competition of the North Atlantic Figure Skating Championships in Lake Placid last November.

★ Chris Teerlinek, a graduate of McQuaid Jesuit High School, who was the only player on the Hobart College soccer team to make the 1990 ICAC Men's All-Conference Team. He was a first-team selection.
