

Pax Christi co-founder set to lead upcoming retreats

ROCHESTER — Father Emmanuel Charles McCarthy, a noted theologian, scholar and attorney, will lead an upcoming retreat at a church in Rochester.

The co-founder of Pax Christi USA, will speak at a Lenten retreat entitled "Christian Non-Violence: The Great Failure — The Only Hope," at Corpus Christi Church, 864 Main St. E., from March 15-17. The times for the retreat will be: 7-9:30 p.m. on Friday, March 15; 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. on Saturday, March 16; and 1:30-4:30 p.m. on Sunday, March 17.

A Catholic priest of the Byzantine rite, Father McCarthy is the founder and director of the Center for the Study of Christian Non-Violence at Notre Dame University in South Bend, Ind. The leader of retreats on non-violence throughout the United States and Canada, Father McCarthy is the father of 12 children.

Call 716/325-2424 or 244-7439 for information and to register.

St. Joseph's table slated

GREECE — St. John the Evangelist Parish, 2400 W. Ridge Road, will host its annual St. Joseph's Table dinner Friday, March 15, from 6:30-9:30 p.m. in the parish center.

The celebration commemorates the March 19 feast of St. Joseph, patron of workers and protector of families. It centers on a table filled with breads, vegetables, pasta and fish dishes, as well as desserts.

In keeping with tradition, the meal will be open to the public. Left-over food and any financial donations will be donated to a local soup kitchen. For information, call Joe Aleo at 716/621-8159.

Mitzie Collins to perform as part of church benefit

WEBSTER — Performer Mitzie Collins will play the hammered dulcimer at St. Paul's Church, 783 Hard Road, at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 16, as part of an Irish music concert to raise funds for the purchase and restoration of a church organ.

Collins is president of Sampler Records Ltd., which produces several Celtic music recordings. She will be accompanied by Roxanne Ziegler on Celtic harp and Eric Rounds on fiddle.

The trio previously worked on an album entitled St. Patrick's Day in the Morning. Collins and Ziegler together have sold more than 40,000 copies of their recordings. An English teacher in the Rochester City School District, Rounds is a dance caller who is active in the Country Dancers of Rochester.

Tickets for the show, which cost $8, can be purchased through the church. For information, call 716/671-2100, Jura Litchfield, 377-6307, or Sampler Records, 328-5856.
