

McQuaid graduates 142

One hundred forty-two seniors received their diplomas Sunday, June 9, during the 34th-annual commencement exercises of McQuaid Jesuit High School. The ceremony took place at the Eastman Theatre.

Brian Connell, the son of Thomas and Barbara Connell of Towngate Road, Rochester, ranked academically first in the class. He plans to study chemistry at the University of Rochester.

Daniel Gebhardt, the son of Paula Hoormance of Yarmouth Road, Rochester, ranked second in the class. He plans to enter the Webb Institute of Naval Architecture in the fall.

Can You Fill Our Order?

Do you want a good job, but haven't much experience? Need money for college ... a new car ... or that trip you always wanted to take? Get a part-time job at McDonald's!

The hours are flexible. We can probably fit your schedule. Part-time, full-time, any time! You'll like the people and the pay, as much as you'll like McDonald's food. Just stop by your neighborhood McDonald's and fill out an application.
