

Sociologist to be speaker

Dr. Julia Loughlin, chair of the Department of Sociology at Syracuse University, will be the commencement speaker Friday evening, June 21, during the 36th graduation ceremony of Notre Dame High School in Elmira. Seventy-one seniors will receive diplomas during the ceremony, which will begin at 8 p.m. at the school, 1400 Maple Ave.

Victor R. Berliner, son of Elizabeth Berliner of Cheryl Street in Elmira Heights, is class valedictorian. He plans to pursue a major in architecture at Deep Springs College.

Salutatorian is Brian C. Sheehan, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sheehan of College Avenue in Elmira. He plans to study engineering at Lehigh University.
