★ The Rev. C. Raymond Probst, who recently retired after 23 years as St. John's Home chaplain and director of pastoral care.

Auburn native to lead Glenmary Missioners

Father Robert A. Dalton, a native of Auburn, was recently elected president of the Glenmary Home Missioners.

A graduate of St. Aloysius School and Holy Family High School in Auburn, Father Dalton, 56, has been a member of Glenmary since 1957. After graduating from St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester, he was ordained a priest in 1962.

In addition to holding pastoral assignments in North Carolina, Georgia, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Virginia, he served for seven years as associate director of the Glenmary novitiate. He also held a four-year term as director of the Glenmary House of Studies in Washington, D.C. Most recently, he served as first vice president for the congregation.

Father Dalton earned his licentiate of Sacred Theology from the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. The priest has served as the U.S. bishops' liaison to the Southern Baptist Conference since 1982.

Glenmary is a society of Catholic priests and brothers serving in Appalachia and the rural South and Southwest.

DePaul Services dinner will feature talk by Lou Holtz

ROCHESTER — Lou Holtz, head football coach at the University of Notre Dame, will be the featured guest at a Dec. 11 dinner benefiting the Adolescent Group Home Program of DePaul Mental Health Services.

Tickets at $100 per person are available through June 30. After June 30, tickets will be sold for $125.

During his five seasons as head coach at Notre Dame, Holtz has accrued a 46-14 record — including a perfect 12-0 season and a No. 1 national ranking in 1988. He also guided the team through a 23-game winning streak from 1988-89, breaking the previous school record of 21 consecutive victories.

In addition to Holtz, the head dais will include Robert "Junior" Poles, a former National Football League player and collegiate All-American who currently works as a community services officer with the Rochester Police Department, and James Rudgers, senior vice president with Norstar Bank and a former assistant coach for Holtz at the University of North Carolina.

Call Tom Corrigan at 716/436-8020 for information.

Food and games highlight 'Funfest' at St. Andrew's

ROCHESTER — St. Andrew's Parish, 923 Portland Ave., will host "Funfest '91" on June 28, starting at 5 p.m.

The gala will include a dinner featuring barbecued chicken, salads, baked beans, salt potatoes and dessert until 8 p.m.

Advance tickets cost $6.50 for adults and $4 for children aged 12 and under. Admission at the door is $7 for adults. Children under 12 can still get in for $4 on the night of the festival.

For information, call Christina Crowley at 716/544-7417 or 342-8686.

Parish sponsors program offering help to neighbors

AUBURN — The Social Ministry Committee of St. Alphonsus Church is sponsoring a "Help Your Neighbor" program.

On the last weekend of each month, parishioners will be asked to take donation slips from baskets located near church exits. The slips will ask for donations of food or household articles for the parish food pantry.

Parishioners are asked to bring their donations to church the first Sunday of each month, leaving the items in boxes at the side statues or at the back of the church.

Parish to celebrate Mass honoring 1991 graduates

SHORTSVILLE — St. Dominic's Church will honor all parishioners graduating from Red Jacket and DeSales high schools this year at the 10 a.m. Mass on Sunday, June 23.

Graduates are asked to meet in the parish center at 9:30 a.m. before they process in caps and gowns to the church. Selected graduates will serve as lectors and present the gifts during the Mass.

A breakfast for the graduates as well as their family and friends will follow in the parish center.
