

'Choose Life Fund' seeks givers to match donation

ROCHESTER — Organizers of the "Choose Life Fund" are currently seeking donors willing to help match a potential anonymous contribution of $5,000. The fund is sponsored by the Faith & Resistance Community, a Catholic pro-life/anti-war group.

The "Choose Life Fund" provides short-term financial support for needy people who want to leave a job at an abortion- or military-related facility.

Interested contributors can mail checks to: Choose Life Fund/Faith & Resistance Community, 175 St. Bridget's Drive, Rochester, N.Y. 14605, or call Jan Bezila at 716/244-7439.

Retreat for women set to begin in September

ROCHESTER — Married women interested in a retreat experience, but unable to go away on weekends because of family or other commitments, are invited to explore the "At Home Retreat."

Sister Anna Louise Staub, SSJ, and Anna Bojdak conduct the 13-week program for women, who meet for two hours each week in one of the participants' homes.

A new group, which will meet Tuesday mornings from 9:30-11:30 a.m., will begin meeting Sept. 17. Call Sister Staub at 716/586-8291 or Bojdak at 377-7588 for information.

Donations needed for sale at DeSales High School

GENEVA — DeSales High School needs donations for its annual yard sale, scheduled for 8 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, July 27. The sale will take place in the school gym, 90 Pulteney St.

Organizers request that large appliances and clothing not be donated.

Drop-offs will be accepted in the gym from 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on July 22 and July 26, and from 6:30-8 p.m. on July 23 and July 25.

For information, call Mary Lou Cannuli at 315/789-3415 after 4 p.m.

VP PERFORMANCE — Vice President Dan Quayle and his wife, Marilyn, met the Bishop Kearney High School Junior/Senior Band June 17 at the Greater Rochester International Airport. At the invitation of the vice president's staff, about 80 BK students — including the band, color guard and cheerleading squad — performed for the Quayles during their airport arrival and departure. The Quayles' three-hour Rochester visit included tours of a Xerox Corporation plant and the bakery of a Wegmans grocery store.

Sisters of St. Joseph slated to offer a six-day retreat; topics will address Gospel concerns and other issues

PITTSFORD — The Sisters of St. Joseph invite people of all ages and backgrounds to a summer renewal opportunity entitled, "Walking On the Edge of a New World" from July 18-23 at the SSJ motherhouse, 4095 East Ave.

The series of programs will begin at 7 p.m. on Thursday, July 18. The closing celebration will take place at 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, July 23.

The program will feature such topics as: "Coming to Grips With Our World," presented by Sister Elizabeth Anne LeValley, SSJ; "Passion for Love," led by Sister Sheila Briody, SSJ; and "The Gospel — No Compromise," given by Sister Patricia Scholles, SSJ.

In addition to the free sessions, the program will offer nature walks and time for swimming. Unless accommodations are included in the schedule, participants must make their own arrangements for lodging and meals.

For information and a complete schedule of presentations, call Sister Anne Alderman, SSJ, at 716/586-1000, ext. 76.
