

House seeks staff members

ROCHESTER — St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, 402 South Avenue, is currently seeking full-time staff members.

Positions at St. Joseph's House of Hospitality — one of the oldest continuous Catholic Worker Houses in the United States — are tailored to the abilities and interests of each individual. Duties might include preparing meals, staffing the overnight shelter, producing the house's newsletter and assisting with the work-cooperative program.

Staff members receive room, board, major medical coverage, stipend, transportation allowance and the opportunity to live in community.

Inquiries can be mailed to: Timothy Sigris, St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, 32 Anthony St., Rochester, N.Y. 14619.

Documentary on gulf war slated to show at parish

GATES — St. Theodore's Church, 168 Spencerport Road, will host a screening of the PBS documentary Moyers Special Report: After the War, on Sept. 14, at 6:45 p.m.

According to press information, the one-hour documentary by journalist Bill Moyers "explores the second thoughts Americans have about Operation Desert Storm now that the official censorship has been lifted and eyewitness reports are available. ... Moyers draws on diverse sources to show the reality of a war that most Americans never saw."

For information, call Father Anthony Mugavero at 716/429-6811.

St. Patrick's Parish plans Irish Fair for September 7

MACEDON — St. Patrick's Parish, 52 Main Street, has scheduled an Irish Fair for Sept. 7.

The day kicks off at 9:30 a.m. with a garage sale. A roast-beef dinner will run from 5-7 p.m., and games and refreshments will be offered beginning at 5:30 p.m.

Cost for the dinner is $6 for adults, $4.50 for senior citizens and $3 for children 5-12. Children under 5 may eat for free.

The Hopkins family gathered for this photo Aug. 8, the day of Sister Catherine Marie Hopkins' (front, left) final profession of vows as a Dominican Sister of the St. Cecilia Congregation. With Sister Hopkins were (from left): Father Edward Hopkins, Peter Hopkins, Father Peter Hopkins, Nelly Hopkins, Stephen Hopkins and Father John Hopkins.

Sister Hopkins professes final vows as Dominican

Sister Catherine Marie Hopkins, O.P., a 1983 graduate of Nazareth College and a former teacher at St. Thomas the Apostle School in Rochester, made her final vows as a Dominican Sister of the St. Cecilia Congregation in Nashville, Tenn., on Aug. 8, the feast of St. Dominic.

friend, Sister Dorothy Marie Schantz, SSI, of Rochester, for helping her discern her vocation.

Three of Sister Hopkins' brothers, Peter, John and Edward, concelebrated her Mass of profession. Her brothers are Legionnaires of Christ ordained to the priesthood earlier this year by Pope John Paul II in Rome.

Sister Hopkins, formerly Marian Hopkins, made her perpetual vows after completing seven years of study and spiritual formation.

After the homily, Father Peter Hopkins led his sister in her final profession. She then signed her vows before the prioress general, Mother Christine Born.

Sister Hopkins credited a close

Recognizing ...

★ Helen Franzese, second runner-up in the New York State Miss Junior Teen Pageant. A parishioner at St. Mary of the Lake/St. Benedict, Watkins Glen, Franzese also won first runner up in the pageant's essay contest and the outstanding academic achievement award in the sophomore class.

★ Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Granston, who recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. They are parishioners at St. Mary of the Lake/St. Benedict, Watkins Glen.

★ Dr. Lou Buttino, a communication-journalism professor at St. John Fisher College, who won a Silver Prize from the prestigious Houston International Film Festival for an hour-long documentary he edited, directed and produced. The video, One Time a Year, which focuses on Fisher's 1990 "Dance for Love," was selected as best independently produced television documentary by an international team of jurists.

★ Amy S. Blind, a parishioner, choir member and flutist at Our Lady of Mercy Parish, Greece, who recently received the Anne M. Fallon Memorial Nursing Scholarship Award from the State University of New York College at Brockport. The award cites the recipient for outstanding academic, professional and community service achievements. After graduating with a bachelor of science degree in nursing in May, she is now employed at Park Ridge Hospital, Rochester.

★ Pamela Roby, a native of Rochester, who was recently named director of development for the Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester. She succeeds Sister Shirley Pitor, SSI.

★ Greg Lewis Productions Inc., which funded five IBM compatible PCs for the development of Seton Catholic School's new computer lab for primary students. The software includes word processing, graphic illustration programs, instruction in Catholic religious subject matter, and tutorials for math, science, and language arts.

★ Judith A. Kollar, director of continuing education for the Rochester diocese, who was one of 12 people across the country chosen to be a field researcher for a national study of lay people and religious in full-time parish ministry. Sponsored by the National Catholic Conference of Bishops, the study is being conducted by the National Pastoral Life Center in New York City. Kollar will conduct on-site visits in two parishes in the Rochester diocese and two in the Diocese of Ogdensburg.

"The Coming Judgment."

Billy TV SPECIAL

Graham

WEDNESDAY 10:00P.M. WOKR/13

OUR OWN HOME GROWN SWEET CORN

5 Delicious Varieties Picked Fresh Every Day

Open 7 Days a Week 8 am - 8 pm; weekends 'til 6 pm

BAUMAN'S FARM MARKET

1340 Five Mile Line Rd. (corner Plank Rd.) Penfield 671-2820