Gridiron grind

McQuaid's Michael Wolf snaps the ball in warm-ups before the Knights took the field for a practice last week. McQuaid will play host to East High in the season-opener for both teams at 2 p.m. on Sept. 14.

AQ tackle John Clendenning didn't let a bloody nose keep him from finishing drills during a recent practice.

It's easy to turn a kid's world upside down.

All it takes is a serious illness or death in the family.

That's why there's KATS. In weekly sessions, kids learn they're not alone. They can share concerns, make friends. Even have fun.

Parents have their own group, too. Need to know more?
