

Women's club plans annual Dante Ball

ROCHESTER — The annual Dante Ball sponsored by the Italian Women's Civic Club of Rochester, Inc. is scheduled for the Holiday Inn-Airport, 911 Brooks Ave. on Sept. 28.

This marks the 66th year of the annual event, which raises scholarship money for students of Italian descent. Funds are applied to endowments at the University of Rochester, Nazareth College of Rochester, and St. John Fisher College. Fifty-six students have received scholarships since the program's inception.

Students receiving scholarships this year are: Sara Beth Trombino (University of Rochester); Deborah Polimeni (St. John Fisher College); and Claire Sciuto and John Joseph Sears (Nazareth College).

The gala will include live music. The guest speaker for the program will be Charles Siragusa, assistant district attorney of Monroe County.

Cocktails will be served from 6-7 p.m. followed by the dinner. The ball is open to the public. For information, contact Sylvia Vazzanna, 1185 Woodhull Road, Webster, N.Y. 14580; or LuAnn D. Cavallaro, 270 Latta Road, Rochester, N.Y. 14612.

Biblical scholar to lead series in Brighton this fall

BRIGHTON — Our Lady Queen of Peace Church, 601 Edgewood Ave., is sponsoring an eight-week series, titled "In Pursuit of the Authentic Paul," this fall.

Scheduled for 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Sunday evenings from Sept. 29 to Nov. 17, the series is open to "anyone searching for nourishment in God's Holy Word," according to a press release from the parish.

Daniel W. Casey Jr., a doctoral candidate in biblical studies, will lead the sessions. He will deal with such topics as "Paul and Law;" "Paul and Charism;" "Paul as 'the converted' or 'the Called;'" and "Paul as Friend/Foe."

The cost is $40 for the series or $5 per session. Those interested are asked to bring their own bibles to the series, which is handicapped accessible.

Call 716/244-4040 or 244-3010 for information.

Auburn church to offer reflection programs Oct. 1

AUBURN — St. Francis of Assisi Parish, 185 Clark St., will host an afternoon of reflection for women and an evening of reflection for men on Tuesday, Oct. 1.

Father John Hopkins, LC, will lead both sessions.

The women's session will run from 1-5 p.m. The session for men will run from 7-10 p.m. A Mass open to both men and women is scheduled for 5 p.m.

Participants will have the opportunity to gather for private prayer and confession between sessions.

Although no fee will be charged, participants may donate a free-will offering or food to share.

Call the rectory at 315/252-7593 for information.

SWINGING INTO OCTOBER — Teresa Mayer, a member of the Bayern Verein Alpengruen Club, performs a German folk dance at the Oktoberfest sponsored by the Federation of German-American Societies. The event took place Sept. 20-22 at the German Cultural Center at Gates Memorial Park. About 1,500 people attended the event, which generated funds for maintaining the center.

Drive to raise funds for church renovation

BRIGHTON — Father Anthony Valente, pastor, and parishioners of Our Lady Queen of Peace Church, 601 Edgewood Ave., launched a two-week fundraising drive on Sept. 16 to help pay for the renovation of the church's interior.

Members of the drive committee are visiting homes within parish boundaries, asking residents for donations that can be paid over a 24-month period. The parish hopes to raise $150,000 through the drive.

In addition to paying for the reconstruction of pews, the money will be used to update the light, sound and organ systems, noted Roger Ciccarella, parish council president.

The parish also wants to repair the church's walls, paneling and flooring; construct a small sanctuary for the Blessed Sacrament; purchase new altar furniture; build a new bride's room; and bring the choir area into the renovated worship space.

The renovation is based on the church's post-Vatican II emphasis on the importance of community in worship, according to a press release from the parish.

"If we are to work out our salvation by finding God in each other, as Father Tony is constantly urging us, our Eucharistic worship must demonstrate exactly that," Ciccarella said.

Waverly parish to host program on encyclical

WAVERLY — In commemoration of the 100th anniversary of Rerum Novarum and the centennial marking the founding of the parish, the Social Ministry Committee at St. James Church has slated its third encyclical workshop for Sept. 29. The program will run from 2-6 p.m.

Entitled "To Act Justly: God's Call/Our Response," the program will be held in the church. Parishioners of St. James will provide supper following the workshop.

John and Pat Brewster, members of the Benedictine monastic community at Holy Trinity Monastery in Hornell, will lead the program.

The theme for the centennial celebration is "The Call to Community and Participation."

Another workshop is scheduled for November. A special Mass to close out the celebration will take place on Dec. 29.

No reservations are needed for the sessions, which are open to the public. For information, call 607/565-2135 or 565-7867.
