

Parish slates celebration to honor retired organist

SHORTSVILLE — St. Dominic's Parish has scheduled a reception in honor of the parish's long-time organist, Alice Boardman, for Sunday, Oct. 27. The reception is scheduled for 3-5 p.m. in the parish center, 6 Canandaigua St.

Boardman was hired as the parish organist in 1932 by then-pastor Father John Napier. Due to ill health, she retired last spring. In addition to playing the organ at Masses on Sunday, Boardman performed at weddings, funerals, devotional services and daily Masses for many years.

For information about the reception, call the parish at 716/289-4164.

Newark school schedules workshop on recruitment

NEWARK — Sister Carol Cimino, SSJ, associate director of the Catholic School Administrators Association of New York State, will lead a recruitment workshop at St. Michael's School, 320 S. Main St., on Saturday, Oct. 26. The workshop will take place from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Sister Cimino is the former director of development at Nazareth Academy in Rochester. The workshop, entitled "Parents as Promoters," is part of the nationwide promotion entitled "Discover Catholic Schools."

All recruitment committee members, school board and home-school officers are invited to attend. Parents of students and supporters of the school are also welcome.

The deadline to register for the workshop is Oct. 18. Call the school office at 315/331-2297.

Mendon group to present November performances

MENDON — The Schnacky Community Players will present a cabaret entitled "Puttin' It Together" at the Community Center of St. Catherine's Church, 26 Mendon-Ionia Road in November.

Scheduled for Nov. 1, 2, 8 and 9, the show will begin at 8 p.m. Tickets cost $15, which includes food and refreshments during intermission.

The group will present additional performances at St. John of Rochester Church, 18 Wickford Way in Fairport on Nov. 22-23 at 8 p.m.

Proceeds from each show will be used to help pay for the construction of St. Catherine's new church.

For information on tickets, call Dee Russell at 716/624-3484. For show information, call Paula Olney at 657-6343.

Church plans fall feast for East Bloomfield Oct. 20

EAST BLOOMFIELD — St. Bridget's/St. Joseph's Church has scheduled a fall feast for Sunday, Oct. 20, beginning at 5 p.m.

The evening will begin with Benediction in the church, 15 Church St. The service will be followed by dinner in the church hall. Those attending the event are asked to bring a dish to pass. Meat and beverages will be provided. Reservations are recommended.

The parish has also scheduled time for games following the dinner. Call the rectory at 716/657-7626 for information.

Altar Society schedules family breakfast, bake sale

AUBURN — The Altar Society at St. Francis of Assisi Church has scheduled a family breakfast for Sunday, Oct. 20. The breakfast will run from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the church, 185 Clark St.

The parish's youth ministry group is planning an activity for children. The event will also include a bake sale.

Tickets for the breakfast cost $3.50 for adults and $1.75 for children aged 5 and older. Children under 5 will be admitted free of charge.

TOURNEY WINNERS — The boys' soccer team at Northeastern Catholic Junior High School won four consecutive divisional games to capture the All Catholic Soccer League Tournament Oct. 4-5. The tournament took place at English Road Park in Greece. John Kleehammer coaches the team. The trophy is now on display at the Kings Highway school.

Parish to offer Lay Caring Ministry Workshop Oct. 20

ROCHESTER — Holy Name of Jesus Parish, St. Martin's Way, is sponsoring a Lay Caring Ministry Workshop from 2-6 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 20.

The program is co-sponsored by the St. Louis, Mo.-based Stephen Ministries, which has developed a program to train and organize lay people to work with those grieving over the death of a loved one.

Entitled the "Stephen Series," the workshop will focus on how Christians can help those in mourning by using techniques that draw on a distinctively Christian spirituality.

The workshop is open to the public. The cost is $15 per person, or $50 for groups of four people or more. For information, call Deacon Richard Lombard, 716/621-4040.

Recognizing...

★ Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Clark Sr., parishioners of St. Charles Borromeo Church in Elmira Heights, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary during a Mass on Aug. 18.

★ former New York State Assemblywoman Finney Cooke, who will be honored Dec. 11 as the first recipient of the DePaul Community Service Award for her contributions to the agency and the Rochester community. Cooke is a board member of Parkside Manor Home for Adults, a subsidiary of DePaul Mental Health Services. She retired from the state Assembly in 1990 after 13 years of service.

★ Lisa Davenport, who was hired as the print shop supervisor at St. Joseph's Hospital in Elmira. She and her husband, Timothy, live in Mainesburg, Pa.

★ Richard A. Dollinger and Dennis E. Barrett, who have both been named partners in the Rochester law firm Mousav, Vigdor, Reeves, Heibronner & Kroll. Dollinger, a Monroe County legislator, is a member of the boards of St. Bernard's Institute and the Episcopacy Association of Greater Rochester, Inc. Barrett earned his bachelor of arts degree from St. John Fisher college and his law degree from Columbia University School of Law.

★ two Our Lady of Mercy High School students for taking first place in Brighton Memorial Library's 19th annual Literary Awards Contest: Jeanne Myers, an eighth-grader, who won the Junior Division prose entry for "The Leprechaun of Isnor Farm," a short story about a mysterious man with a secret; and Mercy sophomore Margaret Michaels, who won first place in the Senior Division for her short story, "Yellowstone Park — The Canyon Run Trail." Two winners in each division — one for poetry, and one for prose — earned $50.

★ Sister Mary Weisser, SSJ, a doctor of ministry student at Colgate Rochester Divinity School, who earned the certificate in pastoral care from the Gordon D. Hoople Institute of the Onondaga Pastoral Counseling Center in Syracuse last May. The certificate marks the successful completion of the Professional Training Program, a two-year program designed to develop advanced counseling skills appropriate to the parish or other community-based settings. The program is affiliated with the doctor of ministry degree of Colgate Rochester Divinity School in Rochester.

SHARE A GREAT COMPASSION

The Dominican Sisters Of Hawthorne.

We nurse incurable cancer patients in our seven free, modern nursing homes, located in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Massachusetts, Georgia and Minnesota. Many who enter our community have no prior nursing experience, but we all share a great compassion for the suffering poor and delight at being able to help them. We seek women who are full of love for Christ, and desire to join a congregation with a strong spiritual and community life.

R-NY

"I will obey God anywhere, at any time, with courage."
