

HF-L ties McQ, 1-1

Despite inclement weather, dozens of McQuaid fans came out to cheer the host Knights.

Michael Krenzer of Honeoye-Falls (left) kicks the ball away from several McQuaid players, including Matt Shields (right), during the 1-1 non-league match between the two teams Oct. 12.

McQuaid's Mark Beresiewicz (right) collides with Jeff Hoppert in an attempt to head the ball.

Schmeer tabbed trainer for Nazareth athletics

ROCHESTER — Nazareth College Athletic Director Bill Carey has announced the appointment of Donald Schmeer as head athletic trainer.

Schmeer replaces Ray Bell, who retired last spring after more than 40 years as head trainer.

A native of Rochester, Schmeer previously worked at Hamilton College in Clinton, N.Y., where he served as assistant athletic trainer for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse and football.

He also completed National Trainers Association certification courses at Guilford College in Greensboro, N.C., where he earned the Student Trainer of the Year Award in 1989. Schmeer received his bachelor's degree in physical education from the State University of New York College at Cortland and his master's degree in education from the University of Rochester.
