

Class reunion scheduled

ROCHESTER — Members of the Class of 1942 at Holy Apostle School have scheduled their 50th reunion for fall of 1992.

For information, call Shirley Burke at 716/663-3760, or Betty Bauer at 865-0047.

Church women hosting Elmira celebration

ELMIRA — The Elmira unit of Church Women United has scheduled services to commemorate World Community Day on Friday, Nov. 1 at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, 314 W. Church St. The services will follow a brown-bag luncheon scheduled to begin at noon.

Members of Church Women United annually sponsor World Community Day to share concerns about justice issues. The national ecumenical movement brings together Catholic, Protestant, Orthodox and other Christian women "into one community of prayer, advocacy and service," according to a press release from the group.

Activities will mark Halloween at parish

SHORTSVILLE — St. Dominic Parish will celebrate Halloween on Nov. 2 with activities in the parish center, 6 Canandaigua St.

A party for children in pre-school through second-grade is planned from noon to 2 p.m. Activities will include face painting, pumpkin designing, a haunted house area, apple bobbing, games and videos.

Students in third- through sixth-grades are invited to come to the center between 3-5 p.m. for music, games, videos and a haunted house area.

A parish dance will begin at 7 p.m., featuring live music by Stiff Shock Rock.

Volunteers are needed to help with refreshments, chaperoning, set-up and clean-up. Anyone interested should call Andrea Record at 716/289-4164 or 289-8261.

CAMPAIGN WINNERS — In memory of slain drug enforcement officer Enrique Camarena, students at St. Boniface School in Rochester participated in a 'Drug Free and Proud' poster contest. The school announced contest winners Oct. 16 — Red Ribbon Day — and dedicated Drug Free School Zone signs. Above (left to right) are: first row — Lamar Proctor, Lashonda Davis, Angelo Rios, Andres Martinez; second row — Lindsay Wayne, Shamara Proctor, Victor Jefferds; third row — Michelle Dorn, Lt. George Beam, Major John McGurn, Lt. Robert Goldfinger.

Workshop series on encyclical concluding in Waverly

WAVERLY — In commemoration of the 100th anniversary of Rerum Novarum and the centennial marking the founding of the parish, the Social Ministry Committee at St. James Church has scheduled its fourth and final encyclical workshop for Nov. 6. The program will run from 7-9 p.m. in the church hall, 503 Clark St.

Mary Kate Davidson, pastoral assistant at St. Catherine of Siena Church, in Ithaca, will present the workshop on economic justice.

The theme for the parish's centennial celebration has been "The call to Community and Participation." The workshop is open to the public. For information, call 607/565-2135 or 565-7867.

Sister Flynn to profess final vows Nov. 8

ROCHESTER — Sister Mary Joanne Flynn, SSJ, will make her final profession of vows as a Sister of St. Joseph at St. Margaret Mary's Church, 401 Rogers Parkway, on Friday, Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m.

A native of Watertown, N.Y., Sister Flynn's ministry has included nursing and Montessori education. She received her nursing degree from the School of Nursing at the State University College at Brockport, and an associate degree in liberal arts and science with an honor services certificate from Monroe Community College.

Sister Flynn has served as a staff nurse at St. Ann's Home and Monroe Community Hospital, and as a teaching assistant at Trinity Montessori School at the SSJ motherhouse. She is currently serving as a teaching assistant in a Montessori classroom at School of the Holy Childhood in Rochester.

The theme for Sister Flynn's final profession is "I Will Bless the Lord All Ways" (PS:34). "No matter what I am doing, working with the children at the School of the Holy Childhood or praying, or spending time with family or friends, this is what is foremost for me — blessing the Lord," Sister Flynn said. "He has done great things for me and being a Sister of St. Joseph of Rochester is the best way that I can bless the Lord all ways."

She is the daughter of Mr. William James Flynn Jr. and Mary Elizabeth Flynn of Watertown.

Parishes to offer remembrance book, collect clothing

AUBURN — Sacred Heart Parish and its mission church of St. Ann's in Owasco will offer a Remembrance Book in front of the Paschal Candle during November.

The book will contain the names of deceased loved ones. Parishioners are invited to add the names of additional loved ones while the book is on display in the vestibule at Sacred Heart Church, 90 Melrose St. The parish will also add the names of those parishioners buried between Oct. 30, 1990, to Nov. 1, 1991.

From Nov. 1-10, the parish's Social

Ministry Committee will collect children's clothing up to size 14. Donated infant clothing will be given to Birthright to assist local women during and after their pregnancies. Organizers are also seeking maternity clothes.

Clothing for older children and adults will be distributed to the needy.

Clean, usable clothing should be brought to church the weekends of Nov. 2-3 and Nov. 9-10. Items can also be dropped at the rectory from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. during the week.

Liturgical musician will perform concert in Webster

WEBSTER — David Haas, a well-known liturgical pianist, guitarist and vocalist, will perform a concert at St. Rita's Church, 1008 Maple Drive, on Friday, Nov. 15, at 7:30 p.m.

In addition to the concert, Haas will also present a musical workshop at the parish on Saturday, Nov. 16, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Best known for such songs as "Blest Are They," "Send Us Your Spirit,"

"Now We Remain," and "Water of Life," Haas recently released an album entitled I Shall See God.

Admission to the Nov. 15 concert is $8. The Nov. 16 workshop costs $30. A combined ticket for both events costs $35. A buffet lunch will be served during the workshop.

Special group and family rates are available. For information, call 716/671-4470.

MEDJUGORJE VISIONARY RETURNS TO ROCHESTER

Babette G. Augustin/Catholic Courier

Ivan Dragicevic will be the kick off speaker for nine days of Prayer for World Peace. We will be praying for the intercession of the Queen of Peace to the Prince of Peace. Ivan will be at the Riverside Convention Center November 29, 1991. He will speak to the youth at 2:00p.m., and adults at 7:30p.m. Tickets are $1.00/youth, $10.00/adults, $15.00 at the door (no one will be turned away because they can't afford a ticket. Please write the St. Charles Borromeo Medjugorje Fund if you need a reduced rate). Tickets sold on a first come, first serve basis (no limit on number) and are available by mail immediately. Please send your order + 1.00 ship./handling to:

St. Charles Borromeo Medjugorje Fund,
3003 Dewey Ave. Rochester, NY 14616

November 29th Schedule of Events

2:00 pm: Youth Rally, Christian Rock Concert,
Ivan Dragicevic's Message
7:30 pm: Rosary, Eucharist, Ivan Dragicevic's Message

Sponsored by St. Charles Borromeo Medjugorje Fund and Don's Travel, 53 Swift St., Waterloo, NY 13165, 315-539-2912. Call Don's for information on Medjugorje Trips.