Lively 'lock-in'

The youth group at St. John of Rochester Church in Fairport held a 'lock-in' in the school gymnasium on Nov. 1. New youth minister Karlann LeMark organized the 12-hour event, which consisted of a midnight Mass, games, skits and lots of good food. The 'lock-in' marked the first organized youth group event in more than five years at St. John's. Clockwise from top left: youths laugh it up during the 'ha-ha' game; a match of 'beach volleyball' proved popular during the overnight event; Brent Morris consumes seven marshmallows while saying, 'I'm a chubby bunny'; several youth group members admire their 'building' made up of straws and clay. The game's object was to devise the tallest 'building.'
