Parish to fete Father Wahl at 35th anniversary dinner

AUBURN — Sacred Heart Church, 90 Melrose Road, has scheduled a May 5 dinner to mark the 80th birthday of the church's first pastor, Father Raymond Wahl.

The dinner in the parish center is part of a yearlong celebration marking the parish's 35th anniversary.

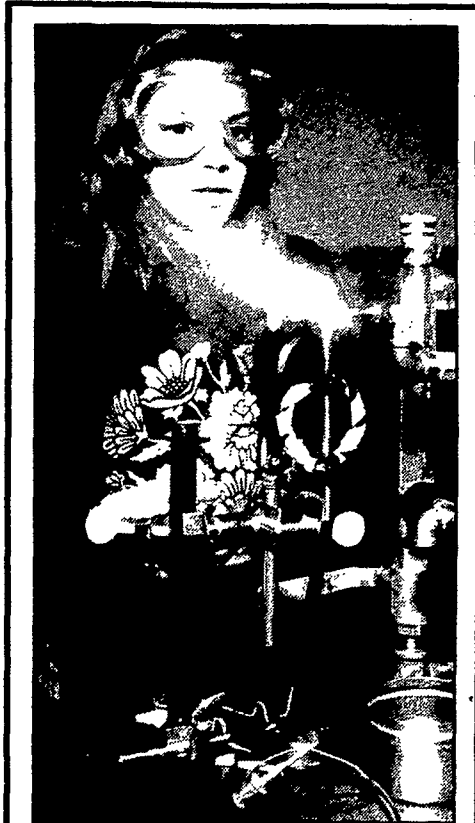

The committee organizing the event is hoping that former parochial vicars, schoolteachers and parishioners will join current parish members for the gala honoring Father Wahl, who found ded the parish in 1956. He served as the Auburn church's pastor until he retired in 1982.

Bishop James Kearney appointed Father Wahl as pastor of Sacred Heart on Oct. 2, 1956. In addition to overseeing the construction of the first church (now the parish center) and the new church, he spurred efforts to build the school, rectory and convent buildings.

Other anniversary events will include a picnic, tentatively scheduled for Aug. 15, following the 5:15 p.m. Mass; and a dinner dance at the Springside Inn, on Friday, Oct. 30.

To make a reservation for the May 5 event, call 315/252-7271.

Heather Stoffel, a fifth-grader at St. Cecilia's School, built this steam generator for the Diocesan Science Fair. About 40 students participated in the April 4 event, which was held at Bishop Kearney High School.

Cookbook now on sale at St. Thomas the Apostle

IRONDEQUOIT — St. Thomas the Apostle School, 41 Colebrook Drive, is offering copies of its Scrumptious, Tasty Cookbook for $10.

Parishioners and school parents contributed recipes to the 90-page book, which is divided into six different food categories.

To purchase a copy, contact the school office at 716/342-1401, or Linda Zaleski at 544-4694.

Former abortionist slated to address rescue 'revival'

Carol Everett, who formerly operated an abortion clinic before becoming a pro-life advocate, is scheduled to be the keynote speaker at a prayer and intercession rally next week in Orchard Park, N.Y.

The April 15 rally will begin at 7 p.m. at the Full Gospel Tabernacle, 3210 Southwestern Blvd., in Orchard Park, a Buffalo suburb.

Everett, the author of The Scarlet Lady: Confessions of a Successful Abortionist, claims that she was responsible for 35,000 deaths by abortion, including maternal deaths. She also acknowledged that she herself had an abortion.

The rally, which is free and open to the public, is part of the Spring of Life Revival in preparation for the rescues scheduled to begin in Buffalo April 20.

Call 716/834-1312 for information.

Community plans Stations for city's Federal Building

ROCHESTER — The Faith and Resistance Community will sponsor its annual veneration and Stations of the Cross at noon on Good Friday, April 17, outside the Kenneth L. Keating Federal Building, 100 State St.

According to a press release from the community, the Stations — as in previous years — "will focus on Christ's historical suffering and his continued suffering through his people as a result of militarism, abortion and economic injustice."

The Faith and Resistance Community advocates a consistent pro-life approach on such issues as war, abortion and the death penalty through prayer, study and non-violent direct action.

The Good Friday demonstration is open to the public. For information, call Jan Bezila at 716/244-7439.
