The Passion of Christ

Claude Ponsot's drawings — which first appeared in Lamp magazine — illustrate Matthew's account of the Passion: "From the sixth hour there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out with a loud voice, 'Why have you deserted me?'"

"They all said, 'Let him be crucified!' 'Why,' he asked, 'what harm has he done?' But they shouted all the louder, 'Let him be crucified!'"

"When they had finished making fun of him, they took off the cloak and dressed him in his own clothes and led him away to crucify him."

"When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people met in council to bring about the death of Jesus. They had him bound, and led him away to hand him over to Pilate, the governor."
