Now I'm wonderful" at 7 p.m. Friday, April 24, as part of Golden Expo 92 at the Rochester Riverside Convention Center.

Golden Expo 92 offering 200 exhibits for seniors

ROCHESTER — Senior citizens will find plenty to see and do at Golden Expo '92, a presentation of 200 exhibits. Slated for Friday and Saturday, April 24-25, the event will take place at the Rochester Riverside Convention Center, 123 E. Main St.

Sponsored by the Regional Council on Aging, Inc., the show will run from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. both days and, in addition to the exhibits will feature continuous entertainment, games and 40 workshops.

Former Olympic diving coach Betty Perkins Carpenter will kick off Golden Expo '92 with an exercise program.

Another of the expo's highlights will be a 7 p.m. Friday performance of I Was Young, But Now I'm Wonderful, by Grandparents Living Theatre, an Ohio-based senior citizens' troupe. For $10, expo attendees will be able to see the internationally acclaimed troupe perform Wonderful prior to its scheduled May run in New York City.

Grandparents Living Theatre earned rave reviews when it performed Wonderful in Cologne, Germany, and the troupe has also appeared on ABC "World News Tonight" with Peter Jennings.

Group ticket discounts are available for the April 24 performance.

In addition to Wonderful, nearly all the area's not-for-profit community agencies will exhibit at Golden Expo. Many of the exhibits will invite audience involvement. Among them are:

- a physical therapy booth that will help individuals establish personal heart rates and set up exercise programs;
- an occupational-therapy booth teaching ways to minimize arthritic disability;
- a dental booth where participants may have their teeth examined using fiber-optic imaging;
- a woodcarving booth where participants can try the craft.

Also on hand will be a chiropractor who will assess body alignment and perform neck massages; a beauty school providing facials; and workshops on subjects ranging from drug use, investment, moving decisions, golfing, sleep, education and hearing loss.

Admission will be $3 per day or $5 for both days, with a $1 discount for holders of Wegmans Shoppers' Club cards.

"We will, of course, admit kids under age 50 if they are accompanied by a parent or guardian," stated John Skvorak, president of the Regional Council on the Aging.
