GRAVESIDE MOURNING — Elma Abadzic, 18, mourns in a new Muslim Sarajevo cemetery by the grave of her friend Irean Plav on April 30. The 20-year-old Plav was killed last week when his car was hit by a rocket-propelled grenade. The pounding of Sarajevo, including its old Muslim section, subsided earlier in the day.

Theologian: Church fails to see women sharing in God's image

By Charlie Wieser
Catholic News Service

OMAHA, Neb. — Christology formed by a patriarchal church is flawed because it fails to recognize women as sharing equally in the image of God, said theologian Rosemary Radford Ruether.

Ruether, a professor at Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary in Evanston, Ill., and an outspoken supporter of ordaining women to the priesthood, was the keynote speaker at Creighton University's April 24-25 symposium on Christology.

It is the branch of theology that deals with the nature, person and deeds of Jesus Christ.

Ruether delivered a May 1 lecture, titled "Prospects for the Full Inclusion of Women in Ministry in the Catholic Church," at St. Bernard's Institute, 1100 S. Goodman St., Rochester.
